ley a pointer before their Baton Demonstration Friday night at the community school family night. The local Judo Club also gave a demonstration while night classes displayed some of their work.

Several Area Knights Elected Provincial Officers

A very successful session of the Grand Black Chapter of Eastern Ontario was held recently in Kingston, with about 100 delegates in attendance. There were interesting reports from the various committees on the past year's activities, also a very interesting address of the Grand Master, Melvyn Frost of Ottawa.

An up to date report was given on the Ontario East Triangle Court, the low rental senior citizens housing project to be built by a joint effort of the ladies, men and Young Britons of Eastern Ontario, at Batawa.

The following officers were elected for 1973: Grand Master - Lawrence Shaw, Cornwall; Immediate Past Grand Master - Melvyn Frost, Ottawa; Deputy - Bernard Hollinger, Foxboro Assoc. Deputy - Fred Alexander, Os-Mountain; Deputy John Eadie, Richmond; Treasurer - Ralph Langley, Peterborough; Deputy - Leigh Reeds, Raeboro; Lecturers - Allan McCoy, Queensboro and Jesse Chatten, Foxboro; Censors - Fred Dunn and Elwood King, Ottawa; Standard Bearers - Francis Jeffery, Belleville and James Carnahan, Ottawa; Marshal - Victor Thomas, Winchester; Pursuivants - Wilfred Sheppard, Castleton and Raymond Chant, Addison; Auditors - A. E. Swendiger, Pembroke and Richard Waugh, Richmond Hill; Committees - R. H. Thompson, Peterborough; James Colton, Coneseque; George Gordon, Queensboro; Allan Diamond, Peterborough; Douglas Wilson, Castleton; Walter Kilgour, Shawville and George Fowler, Peterborough.

The election was conducted by Lynn Jones, Grand Treasurer of Canada and the installation by Max Cole of Deer Lake, Newfoundland, Deputy Grand Master. Next year the convention will be held in Belleville as part of the centennial of the national chapter, which was inaugurated there in 1874.

May Expand Nursery School

A general meeting of the Stirling Co-Operative Nursery School was held at St. Paul's United Church on Thursday, April 26, 1973. Sixteen members were present.

One of the items of business discussed was the possible enlargement of the program to include a nursery school in Ramora, to open in September.

Also studied was a draft of a proposed Constitution, which will be completely adopted at a future meeting.

The next general meeting will be held on May 24 at 7:30 p.m. in St. Paul's United Church. All members are urged to attend.

Freshments were served at the close of the meeting.

Pupils from the Senior Public School in Stirling, Centennial Secondary School in Belleville and Centre Hastings Secondary School in Madoc are busy rounding up pledges for the annual Walkathon, sponsored by the Stirling Rotary Club to assist in raising money for their work with crippled children in the area.

Local pupils have been canvassing the village residents for the past few days, getting pledges of so much a mile for the 10 mile hike. Upon the completion, the walkers then return and collect according to how many miles they completed.

Last year the walk raised about $2,000 from among 250 participants, an increase of almost 100 over the year before. They

Senior Citizens hold meeting

From the amount of cackling going on at Senior Citizens on Thursday you would swear that occasionally someone had laid an egg. Ten tables of euche were responsible for it all, Anne Faulkner and Harry Jeffries had the most to cackle about while Fanny Kane and Ernie Munro had a score that well-nigh out sed.

We extend sympathy to Florence MacMullen and family in their recent bereavement. Our treasurer Lili Heaman gave a detailed report on our finances which showed that we are quite independent and far from being in the red. A vote of thanks for all her efforts was heartily endorsed by all. Tasty lunch of assorted muffins and jam was served by Letta Curtis, Kate Donohoe, Ada Bush and Edna Campbell.

LONG LONG AGO Remember the good old days when the butcher, to get rid of liver threw in a hunk of it with every meat order and lots of snot too. He would give you all the dog bones you could carry, for free. Today dog bones sell at 39 cents a pound, (discount priced).

Local Group Gets $5,000

At least half a dozen Stirling young people are not going to be unemployed this summer thanks to their own initiative and planning. With the financial assistance of a $5,000 Opportunities for Youth Grant from the federal government, Stirling will have its own summer recreational program for public school children.

It was announced last week that the group has been approved to receive the grant to operate a program to be known as "Recreational Program for Children in Stirling."

The group consists of Sandra and Lana LaChapelle, John Mouch, Liz Kerby and Leanne Stapley, with one more participant yet to be named. All of those named participated in the summer program that was operated here some years ago and have also been involved with youth work through their school and church involvement. While no one person came up with the idea the fact that the grant was available and forms were on hand to complete was made known by Rev. C.E. Staples, rector of St. John's Anglican Church.

The program is scheduled to begin June 18 and run for two months. There will be no formal registration as such, but the program will be open to public school children from grades one to six.

It is planned to include arts and crafts, sports (for which they hope to obtain the use of some school facilities), entertaining the senior citizens and swimming classes. It is hoped to make the children and indirectly their parents aware of what opportunities there are in the area and how to make the most use of them.

The Opportunities for Youth program is operated under the Department of the Secretary of State, headed by Hugh Faulkner of Peterborough.

Hold Walkathon Again May 12

Pupils from the Senior Public School in Stirling, Centennial Secondary School in Belleville and Centre Hastings Secondary School in Madoc are busy rounding up pledges for the annual Walkathon, sponsored by the Stirling Rotary Club to assist in raising money for their work with crippled children in the area.

Local pupils have been canvassing the village residents for the past few days, getting pledges of so much a mile for the 10 mile hike. Upon the completion, the walkers then return and collect according to how many miles they completed.

Last year the walk raised about $2,000 from among 250 participants, an increase of almost 100 over the year before. They will leave the Senior School at 9 a.m. on May 12 and walk west on Church Street to the Campbellford Road, west to Wingfield School, east along the fourth concession of Rawdon Township and south along Highway 14 to the village and back to the starting point.

Rotary Club officials are organizing the patrol of the route by the Ontario Provincial Police, especially the Highway 14 portion. Arrangements have already been made for adult supervision of the railway crossing at the west end of the village.

There will be four check points along the route, and the club officials could use the assistance of any adults who would like to help in this worthwhile venture.

MR. AND MRS. DONALD WILSON

Wilson-Loucks

St. Paul's United Church, Stirling, was the setting for the wedding April 7 of Mary Anne Catherine Loucks to Donald William Wilson. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C.A. Loucks of Stirling, and the groom the son of Mr. and Mrs. Francis Wilson, Belleville.

The ceremony was performed by Rev. John A. May, with Mrs. E. Brown playing the wedding music.
Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a floor length gown of Chantilly lace and satin peau featuring a scalloped neck line. The long lace sleeves formed a lily point at the wrist, and the dress had a seissor front with a satin peau bow at the waist. A matching lace chapel length train fell gracefully from the shoulders. The centre back was closed by a row of self covered buttons. The headpiece of Guipure lace flowers was trimmed with self seed pearls and auroreballs held a four tier veil of pure silk illusion. The bride carried a bouquet of red roses, white stephanotis, green fern enhanced with a silver ribbon.

The bridesmaids were Misses Jackie O'Neill, Belleville, Marilyn Bastedad, Toronto, and the maid of honor was Miss Rosalyn Rodgers, Toronto.

They wore floor length gowns featuring a plain hot pink chiffon bodice trimmed at the collar, centre front and cuffs with pleated ruffles of plain chiffon. A full skirt of floral chiffon trimmed at the waistline by a deep velvet ribbon formed a self bow at centre back. They wore large pink picture hats trimmed with matching velvet ribbon and bow.

The flower girl was Miss Susan Ann Wilson, wearing a similar dress to those of the bridesmaids, and carried a small basket of white shasta daisies.

The best man was Brian Wilson of Belleville, with Alan Wilson and Charles Loucks acting as ushers.
For the reception, held at St. Paul's, the bride's mother received wearing a long yellow crimpelene dress with gold trim and accessories. She wore a corsage of red sweetheart roses. She was assisted by the groom's mother wearing a coat and dress ensemble of green crimpelene and green accessories. She also had a corsage of red sweetheart roses.

For the wedding trip to Lake Placid and Whiteface Mountain, and point east, the bride chose a travelling costume of yellow crimpelene, with long sleeves, white collar and cuffs. She wore a corsage of red sweetheart roses and baby white mums.

On their return, the couple will reside at 166 Ann St., Belleville.
Prior to her marriage, Miss Loucks was entertained at four showers which were held by Misses Nelda and Jackie O'Neill; Mr. and Mrs. Earl Fox; Mrs. Earl Wright and Mrs. Eric Watkins.

Springbrook WI

Mrs. Clayton Burkitt was the hostess for the annual meeting of the Spring Brook Women's Institute, with an attendance of 17 ladies. Mrs. A. Reid and Mrs. A. Brown were co-hostesses.

Mrs. G. Williams welcomed everyone and opened the meeting with the reading of a poem, expressing the joys of Springtime. Mrs. Williams then led in the singing of O'Canada, the Mary Stewart Collect, and the Institute Ode.

Membership fees were paid in answer to the roll call. Mrs. Barlow read the minutes of the March meeting and the correspondence. A short time of business followed.

Mrs. Myrtle Cassidy displayed a quilt that had recently been quilted at her home by a few of the Institute members. "Happy Birthday" was sung to Mrs. E. Heath and for Mrs. A. Brown who was not able to attend the meeting. Pennies were collected for the "friendship fund."

There was a short discussion from the Institute Hand Book, on the proper procedure in conducting Institute meetings. Mrs. Barlow read the minutes of the 1972 annual meeting, and the financial report for the past year, showing a very substantial balance. The auditors report was given by Mrs. F. McKeown.

Reports were given by the Convenors of Standing Committees. Mrs. Williams thanked the members for their co-operation throughout the past year, and gave a summary of the year's activities. Mrs. L. McInroy was appointed delegate with the President and District Director to the District annual in Madoc.

Mrs. W. McInroy and Mrs. M. Fleming were appointed to act on a special committee for remembering the sick. A bake sale to be held at Marmora was discussed and a date was set.

Mrs. Williams was chair-lady for the election of officers and convenors, with Mrs. Barlow as secretary. It was moved and seconded that the slate remain the same as last year, which is as follows:

President - Mrs. G. Williams, 1st vice pres., Mrs. Myrtle Cassidy, 2nd vice pres., Mrs. James Spry, secretary, treasurer - Mrs. W.J. Barlow, district director - Mrs. Cyril McKeown, alternate director - Mrs. C. Burkitt, directors - Mrs. George Thompson, Mrs. F. McKeown, Mrs. E. Heath, and Mrs. James Spry; pianist - Mrs. G. Williams, assist. pianist - Mrs. B. Storms, auditor - Mrs. G. Broadworth, public relations - Mrs. A. Reid and Mrs. W. McInroy, press reporter - Mrs. L. McInroy, branch curator - Mrs. C. Burkitt.

Standing Committee Convenors - Family and Consumer Affairs - Mrs. Gerald Burkitt and Mrs. J. Spry; Agriculture - Mrs. C. McKeown and Mrs. F. McKeown; Canadian Industries - Mrs. G. Broadworth, Mrs. M. Cassidy; Citizenship and World Affairs - Mrs. L. McInroy, Mrs. G. Williams; Education and Cultural Activities - Mrs. C. Burkitt and Mrs. A. Brown; Resolutions - Mrs. E. Heath, Mrs. A. Burkitt.

The meeting was adjourned and lunch was served.

MRS. FLORENCE MORROW

Mrs. Florence Etta Morrow, 126 Front Street West, Stirling, died suddenly at her home on Wednesday, April 25, 1973. She was in her 88th year.

A resident of the Stirling area for much of her life, Mrs. Morrow was the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Goodland and was educated at the Ridge Road Public School. She lived at Victoria, B.C. and at River Valley before moving to Stirling 30 years ago. She was a member of St. John's Anglican Church, Stirling.

She is survived by two sons, Harry and Kenneth Morrow of R.R. 4, Stirling (Stirling - Frankford Highway), four grandchildren and four great-grandchildren. Also surviving is a sister, Mrs. Letha Thompson of Stirling and a dear friend, Miss Marjorie Forbes. Her husband predeceased her in 1944 and a brother, William Good and a sister, Mrs. Dave Thatcher (May) are also deceased.

The funeral was held Saturday, April 28th with service at the Hogle Funeral Home, 87 James Street, Stirling, at 1:30 p.m., conducted by Rev. Charles Staples, Interment, Stirling Cemetery.

Bearers were Jack Sager, Glenn Buch, Roy Irvine, Hadley Richardson, Norman Rosebush and Mr. E. (Ted) Reynolds.

Friday Night Mixed League

On April 6th the Deuces were 7-0 winners over the Diamonds and the Jokers were 5-2 winners over the Aces.

Team points at the finish of the season are Jokers 122, Aces 116, Diamonds 94 and Deuces 91.

Ladies high single for a group was bowled by Rosa Spry and also high triple of 806, Verna Woodbeck finished the season with an average of 196.

In 'B' group for the ladies Irene Lippert bowled high single of 190 and high triple of 519 and also finished the season with a high average of 197. For the men Ralph Park bowled high single of 294 and high triple of 703 and also finished the season with a high average of 215.

Other good games of 200 and over were bowled by Ralph Sees 204; Harold Morgan 211, 226; Verna Woodbeck 226; Ralph Riskey 201; Robert Sararas 212, 216, 234; Doug Sees 200, 203; Ted Mead 208 and Ralph Park 222.

FRIDAY NIGHT MIXED LEAGUE ANNUAL BANQUET

The banquet was held on April 27 at the Oddfellows' Temple with the Past Noble Grand's catering. Roast beef was served and as usual, was delicious.

There were 24 bowlers and five guests present. Jessie Riskey said a very special thank you to the ladies for their fine meal.

A door prize was donated by Houlit and Hellewell Trophy gift sales, from whom we purchased our trophies, and this was won by Lorraine Searies when her lucky ticket was drawn.

Harold Morgan, president of the league, assisted by Ralph Sees, secretary, then presented the trophies; 1st place going to the Jokers: Robert Sararas, Barbara Sararas, Doug Sees, Grace Sees, Ralph Park and Ted Mead. 2nd place winners were the Aces: Ralph Riskey, Muriel Riskey, Verna Woodbeck, Harold Morgan, June Sees and Ralph Sees. 3rd place team were the Diamonds: Don Carr, Gloria Carr, Lorraine Searies, Gaiet Searies, Jessie Riskey and Bus Riskey. 4th place winners were the Deuces: Pete Lippert, Irene Lippert, Clive White, Verna White, Rosa Spry and Bill Reid.

Trophies were also presented for high average, triple and single for the year. Ladies 'A' group (100 and up) high average - Verna Woodbeck 196; high triple - Rosa Spry 806; and high single - Jessie Riskey 276. Ladies 'B' group (90 to 150) high average - Irene Lippert 157; high triple - Grace Sees 540; and high single - June Sees 234. For the men Ralph Park had high average of 215, Ralph Sees high triple of 768 and Robert Sararas had high single of 348. Vera White received a comical trophy for low score of the year.

Election of officers was held for the executive of the coming year. Those elected were Ralph Sees - president; Robert Sararas - vice president; Ralph Riskey - secretary; and Jessie Riskey returned for treasurer.

The meeting was adjourned and the rest of the evening was spent playing progressive euchre. Prizes were given out to high and low scores: ladies high June Sees, 2nd - Margaret Shone, low - Jessie Riskey; gentlemen's high - Rosa Spry (playing a man's card), 2nd - Harold Morgan, low - Bill Reid. An enjoyable time was had by all.

We would like to take this opportunity to thank the Stirling News-Argus for their fine service in printing our bowling news for the season.

Stirling Bantam and Junior League

On Saturday, April 28 the Strikers added another five points to their total to put them way out in front with 101 points when they defeated the Hot Stuff. The Triumphs were defeated by the Centre Pins and the Go Getters took five points from the Chargers, so any one of them could pull into second place next week. The Triumphs hold that spot now with 80; Go Getters have 78 and Centre Pins 77. Hot Stuff have 71 and Chargers 70.

Hastings County Junior Farmers

The general meeting for the month of April was held on Thursday, April 18th. About 40 members met at Bethel Zion Hall in Thurlow for a hayride and later back to the hall for a wiener roast.

The April Executive meeting was held on Monday, April 23rd at the home of Darlene Robson, the club's treasurer. Our plans for a dance to be held in June were completed. It was decided that Friday, June 29th would be a suitable date. We have obtained the facilities of Club Cedars and the services of the Land 'O' Lake Cruisers. We are hoping for a successful evening and welcome everyone.

Our May meeting will be a ball practice to be held on Wednesday, May 18 with a short business meeting later. The location is not definite at this time.

We are also expecting a visit from a Scottish delegate in mid May. His visit will be for two weeks and he will stay in the homes of two members. He will see how Canadian farming compares to farming in his country. It should be an interesting two weeks for both the host farmer and the delegate.

Evaluation

The recent events in the United States surrounding the so-called "Watergate incident" and recent allegations in the Ontario House about government ministers and others using government planes for private business raises an ugly spectre that can loosely be called a "Credibility Gap." When the White House and hints of misappropriation of public vehicles do the same in our own provincial circles, it seems time that a soul-searching took place among governments at all levels.

During the weekend just past, there were rumors that President Nixon was working on speech, presumably to try and defend his personal and governmental position on the alleged tapping of the telephones at the former National Democratic Committee Headquarters. Much has been printed in the American press in the past couple of weeks about this affair, and there is still much more to come. The same could apply to our own situation in Toronto, where the Premier, William Davis, along with certain other government personnel have been cited for taking family on government aircraft. The details of this have not yet been sorted out, except for one statement that the premier needs to be able to get back to Toronto in a hurry in the event of emergency.

While these two events are, in reality, far apart on the scale of wrongdoing, they are related in the fact that it places the elected or appointed people concerned, not only in the glare of unfavorable publicity, but in the position of being continually suspect by those who elected them to office. We realize there will likely always be a certain degree of hanky panky going on in these environs, but that is a small degree compared to the USA episode in particular, and to a lesser extent the plane hijacking.

This situation is nothing new, but it is something that needs to be studied and curbed as soon as possible. Elected office of any description is supposed to be a position of trust, and those holding these offices should be above reproach. We feel it behooves the leaders to make a personal commitment that such actions will be thoroughly investigated in the first place, and action taken where warranted, against the offender or offenders.

There has been much interest in Ontario in recent months in regard to the conflict of interest issue. This has prevented many individuals from seeking public office because they did business with the level of government concerned. The Ontario government issued a policy statement on this and it seems to have settled the matter for the moment. It seems the same type of policy is now needed on other actions.

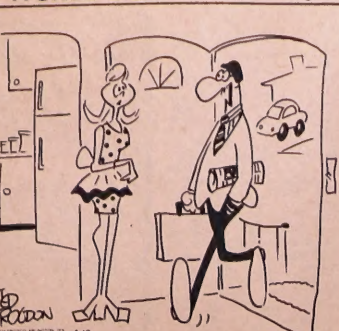

As far as the American issue is concerned, that is theirs to deal with, and hopefully the mess will be cleaned up quickly and efficiently. In our own case here in Ontario, there may be legitimate instances where government vehicles are used in a semi-personal way. If such actions were fully recorded and acknowledged, it might avoid nasty arguments in future. Such instances always tend to lend themselves to smear campaigns, and the more these can be avoided, the better off we all will be.

ALL AT SEA
Remember the Manhattan, that 1,005 foot $43 million ice-breaking oil tanker that was built for a U.S. oil company to ply the Arctic waters above Canada's north shores. Remember how she needed the Canadian ice-breaker, the John A. MacDonald, to break through the masses of ice jamming the northwest passage.

A minor rupture and oil leak during her shake-down cruise, and the difficulties the heavy ice created for her 150,000 tons and her 43,000 horsepower, turned the tide on the Manhattan.

Instead of tankers carrying oil from Alaska to the eastern seaboard, North America has a new pipeline debate - pipelines to carry oil across the permafrost region to its markets.

And, according to a U.S. environmental writer, the Manhattan has become one of the world's unique examples of recycling as she sits in Bangladesh's Chittagong harbour - used as a grain silo.

Two researchers are developing a 12 year old idea to assess the practicability of getting fresh clean water from the other pole.

Neil Ostrander and John Hult, funded by a U.S. National Science Foundation Grant, propose self-propelled floating nuclear power stations that carry and run huge electrical engines on an antarctic iceberg.

They feel these bergs, which average a thickness of 300 yards and an area of from 10 to 25 square miles, can be driven to arid coastal countries by atomic power.

They envision an iceberg train, by a locomotive, being towed with atomic powerplant, floating to the point where it is needed.

There quarrying machinery would grind the ice into some of the earth's purest water and pipe it ashore.

Technology should be ready to cope with this project by 1980, but there are still bugs in the proposal.

These include the loss of mass in the antarctic and its effect on the Antarctic Ocean and the fog and cold water runoff that would accompany the ice train.

A major difficulty is the doubtful ability of the water-poor coastal nations, like Mexico, Chile, Israel and Arabia to name a few, to create farming areas and aqueducts and irrigation networks to use a sudden abundance of water.

It's just part of the challenge we all face - to learn to use our environment instead of abusing it.

CUB CORNER

April 30th Duty Six led by Ken Frost opened the meeting at 7 p.m. with the Grand Howl. Twenty-eight boys were present.

Baloo was happy to welcome Kaa (Jody Sager) since Kaa had had to be out of town on business. Also we appreciated the help of Mr. Dodge. We are anxiously looking forward to the return of Bagheera (Agnes Thompson). The Star Studies in her group are lagging without her able supervision.

Since it was a warm clear night we all practised relay races delivering messages and obstacle courses for the Cuboree Field Day next month.

Don and Dale Ashley were awarded their Pet Keeper's Badge. Don Lake received his Collector's Badge. Most of our boys are working hard toward the Field Day competitions and we are looking forward to good weather next week.

Get pollution off your chest.

Ontario is a fast-growing province - more people, more vehicles, more factories, more machines every day.

With that growth comes the threat of damage to our environment. Pollution of all kinds.

The Ministry of the Environment is Ontario's guardian of our air and land and water.

Here's who we are and what we do:

Air Pollution.
1. We monitor the air for pollution and order corrections if unacceptable levels occur.

2. We track down strange odours in the air and many things you can't smell and eliminate them if they are dangerous.

3. We investigate suspected air pollution injury to people or property.

4. We are responsible for noise pollution and are creating enforceable noise control measures.

Land Pollution.

1. We deal with all the leftovers of our affluent society - the industrial waste, processed organic wastes, and ordinary garbage.

And regulate its transportation and disposal.

2. We study recycling as an aid to reducing quantities of waste and to avoid depletion of our natural resources.

3. We control the use and application of pesticides which are unacceptable for pollution reasons.

Water Pollution.

1. We protect all of Ontario's water sources from pollution.

2. We develop and control surface and ground water resources.

3. We watch all potential sources of industrial and agricultural water pollution.

4. We plan, build and finance modern sewage and waterworks facilities for Ontario municipalities.

5. We supervise all private waste disposal systems.

Ontario has some of the most comprehensive legislation in North America to protect our environment. But it will take the effort of everyone to solve our pollution problems.

Won't you help?

Stirling Teacher Attends Convention

The annual convention of the Association for Children with Learning Disabilities was held recently in St. Catharines. At the convention, Stirling's Ed Gladys Sine of the Special Education Department, Guest Speaker at the banquet was Dr. McCarthy, who described the present tendency to put children with learning disabilities back into regular classrooms as a cop-out, unless arrangements such as special resource rooms, itinerant teachers, careful training of regular classroom teachers, and excellent support services for them, were substituted for special classes. These arrangements, properly carried out, would and should be at least as expensive as the classes they displace. She described the law-suits at present being fought in the United States by private citizens against school-boards which had failed to teach handicapped children, as an unsatisfactory method of achieving reform, as inadequate programs hastily thrown together to fend off litigation were not as good as carefully thought out and properly legislated programs. Dr. McCarthy's talks were taped, and it is hoped that transcribed copies will be available eventually for distribution to interested people. The Association's business meeting took place recently and the following Board of Directors was elected: Mr. Tom Leon, Mrs. June Bailey of Trenton, Mrs. Anne Donaldson, Mr. Harry Sutherland, Mr. John Davis, Mrs. Marion Haworth, Dr. William Hawke, Mr. Donald Jones, Mrs. Geraldine Kennedy, Mr. Randal Kenny, Mr. Nick Leluk, Mr. Grant Mitchell, Mr. Phil Nimmons, Mr. Jack Underwood and Mr. Norman Button.

At the dinner that evening, Mr. Joe Reid, Mayor of St. Catharines, welcomed the Association to the city, and introduced the guest speaker, the Hon. Robert Welch, Minister for Social Development in the government of Ontario. He had a great deal of praise for the work of volunteer organizations, and said that constructive criticisms from such bodies were essential to the Government in the formation of policy. He reiterated that he understood the need for special help in the schools for all handicapped children, and acknowledged that money spent in this way constituted a saving in funds which might otherwise become necessary for the rehabilitation of such children in later life.

SPECIAL NOTICE

MAY 16th will be a special edition of the Stirling News-Argus, and of special benefit to advertisers and readers alike. As happens periodically there will be a special mailing to cover all the homes within a 15 mile radius of Stirling. With more than double the usual circulation issued for that week, it will be a chance for advertisers to present their message to the largest cross-section of readers that can be reached in this way. There will also be special feature articles of interest to all readers. As part of the issue, the News-Argus will be conducting a subscription campaign, with details to be announced in future issues.

Due to the special nature of the issue, and for this issue ONLY, the deadline for all display and classified advertising will be 5:00 p.m. FRIDAY, MAY 11th. This is necessitated to ensure the best possible publication of the paper, due to the larger circulation, and the anticipated larger edition.

Advertisers who wish to take advantage of this special issue are asked to contact the publisher at 395-3321 as soon as they have their message formulated.

Weekly Meditation

CONTRIBUTED BY STIRLING CLERGYMEN

(By Rev. James F. McGarvey)
This is the season of the year when we rejoice that the Lord has risen. We sing the Alleluia and happiness radiates from us. Our faith is enlivened and we rejoice in the Lord.

Let us recall the story of the two disciples on the way to the village called Emmaus, seven miles from Jerusalem. As they talked together about the things that had happened to Jesus, Jesus Himself came up and walked by their side; but something prevented them from recognizing Him. He said to them, "What matters are you discussing as you walk along?" They stopped short, their faces downcast.

Then one of them called Cleopas, answered Him, "You must be the only person staying in Jerusalem who does not know the things that have been happening there these last few days."

Then He said to them: "You foolish men! So slow to believe the full message of the prophets!" (Was it not ordained that the Christ should suffer and so enter into glory?) Then, starting with Moses and going through all the prophets, He explained to them the passage throughout the scriptures that were about Himself.

After Jesus had left them they said to each other, "Did not our hearts burn within us as He talked to us on the road and explained the scriptures to us?"

As we journey along the road of life it is well for us to hear the scriptures explained to us. Jesus Christ has made provisions for such explanations. Did He not say, "As the Father sent me, so am I sending you." During Holy Week we read in our churches the accounts of the passion and death of our Lord Jesus Christ. We could truly rejoice on Easter Sunday when we read the story of the Resurrection. His victory over suffering and death; proof that He had accomplished the mission given to Him by the Heavenly Father. We were now a redeemed people.

It is my prayer that each of us will have an Emmaus experience, and have it very frequently. May our hearts burn within us as He walks along the road of life with us!

DOJARS & GOOD SENSE

Special Consultant to Auto Financial Services

On January 18 a new U.S. law, designed to save you money on future automobile purchases, became effective. Commonly referred to as the "bumper bill", its full title is the Motor Vehicle Information and Cost Savings Act.

Basically, the law will establish front and rear bumper standards for all U.S. cars to reduce low-speed collision damage, but there's more to it than that. The new bumper standards will become effective after July 1, and the act provides stiff penalties for violators. Consumers can even sue manufacturers if damage to their cars results from a violation of the new standards.

IODE Chapter holds meeting

The I.O.D.E. held its regular monthly meeting at the home of Mrs. Donald Porritt on Thursday, April 26, 1973. The Regent, Mrs. Carl Bos, opened the meeting with the Prayer of the Order. Mrs. Eugene Burrell, asst. Secretary read the minutes of the last meeting which were approved. Miss Gena Spry called the roll which was answered with 12 members and two new members. Miss Rosa Spry gave her treasurer's report. Mrs. Carman Fitchett gave her service secretary's report. Mrs. D. Blackhall thanked the members for their donation to the Order. The Order's candy sale at the Girl Guide Afternoon Tea which was held in Belleville on April 10, New business was attended to. It was decided to hold a bazaar sale on Saturday, May 12 at 10 a.m. in the Stirling Hydro Office. It was also decided to plan another art show in the hall which will be held in the Stirling Community Hall.

The Regent, Mrs. Bosiak, closed this meeting by all members singing the Queen. Mrs. Donald Porritt then played a record named "How to Live with Yourself" by Dr. Murray Banks, which was much enjoyed by all. This was followed with lunch served by Mrs. Donald Porritt. Mrs. Donald Rodgers and Mrs. Edward Reynolds, Mrs. Eugene Burrell moved a vote of thanks to the hostess and her lunch committee.

The next meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. Robert Burgess on Thursday, May 24 at 8 p.m.

Spring Brook UCW

Springbrook United Church Women held their regular meeting on Thurs. evening in the church basement. An Easter Expression was the roll call. It was very well responded to by about thirty-five ladies.

Mrs. James Spry conducted an Easter contest with every-one participating.

The Pres. Mrs. Murney Bateman opened the meeting with a poem entitled "Spring-time" and held a brief business period. The ladies are catering to a sale at 10:30 a.m. on May 7th, also plans are being made to entertain the St. Citizens, Mrs. Bateman congratulated the younger women on starting a Junior Unit of the U. C. W. The women of the St. Unit pledged their support and good wishes for a successful year. May God bless the women of the church. The worship service was in charge of Mrs. Wilfred Spencer. The theme for worship, "Easter and the Resurrection" was very well presented by Mrs. Spencer, Mrs. Clarence Thomson and Mrs. Jack Spencer. Mrs. Bob Spencer accompanied herself on the accordion as she very beautifully sang, "From The Manger To The Cross."

A Bible study on "The Meaning of the Cross" was conducted by Mrs. Gerald McPaul. The meeting closed with the "Lord's Prayer" repeated in unison.

The hostesses, Mrs. Lloyd Sedore and Mrs. Ralph Thompson, served a lovely lunch to the ladies.

Two Brigades Fight Council Minutes

An early Tuesday morning fire of undetermined origin wiped out the business premises of Bert Jones Ltd., until recent years proprietor of a prosperous school bus business in Rawdon Township, just north of the Village limits.

The Stirling and Rawdon Fire Departments were called shortly before 7:30 a.m. but hampered by lack of water at the outset, were unable to save the T-shaped structure. After Rawdon's truck arrived on the scene, a hose line was run from near the Legion and the water was fed through the pumper unit. Plans to boost the pressure with the Stirling truck about halfway along the line had to be abandoned when the Stirling pump malfunctioned.

Bert Jones, owner of the business, said that the loss is in the neighborhood of $55,000 including all the contents of the premises. Included with loss was about $15,000 worth of customers' buses, one of which was a new van.

Jones tried unsuccessfully to save his business records, but was able to salvage two books before the thick smoke drove him from the building.

The fire is believed to have started in the paint storage area in the back of the building. After the flames broke through the roof, about half an hour after the smoke started pouring up, the front portion of the building gradually was gutted. As the fire moved into the back portion, where the paint and related supplies were stored, the periodic exploding of paint cans could be heard above the flames.

The fire attracted a crowd of spectators and both sides of the road were lined with cars. Provincial Police were on hand to help keep the road open.

Minutes of the meetings held April 4 and 16 approved on motion by Klompaker and Faulkner.

Reeve Anderson turned the meeting over to E.A. MacDonald, our Auditor who was present. He had spent the afternoon with the Clerk and the Finance Committee to set up our budget. He said he had been unable to get our financial statement typed up, but would have it done in the next couple of weeks and would come down one evening and explain the statement to Council. He had his rough copy with him and explained that after buying the Wells Ford Sales property, we had a surplus of over $30,000.

As he had set up the budget with the Finance Committee, he just explained to Council the new Grant Structure as brought down in the April budget of the Province. When made up according to the new set of forms, he said our allotment would be slightly over $29,000. He asked Council to hold the budget until the next day so he could check his calculations more accurately.

Clerk read the following correspondence:

Ministry of Treasury, Economics and Intergovernmental Affairs-re: 1. Regulations for Committee of Adjustments; 2. Municipal Grant, Citizens' Bureau-re: Local Initiative Program Grant, River Valley Women's Institute re: Lagoon objection, Jack and Dorothy McCaughen re: Fiddler Mills Jamboree; Ministry of Agriculture and Food re: revised Weed Control Act; Township of Bangor, Wicklow and McClure re: Resolution, Canada Week Committee re: Canada Week, June 25 to July 1; Phillips Planning and Engineering re: CC to Planning Administration Branch; Bylaw Officer's Report; Hastings County Board of Education re: Confirmation of Appointment; G.C. Mouck re: Fire Budget.

Motion by Martin and Valchur that the correspondence be received and filed except that which would be brought up later under General Business.

Motion by Martin and Klompaker that the Clerk was instructed to have the necessary proclamation placed in the local paper.

Motion by Klompaker and Faulkner that the resolution as received from the Townships of Bangor, Wicklow and McClure be endorsed by Stirling Council and the Honourable Thomas R. Wells and C.T. Rollins be notified of our action.

James Johnston attended Council and asked if it would consider raising the street in front of his house and how much, so he could grade his lawn to this level. Council agreed to raise the street as soon as the extension of the sewer line was completed.

Motion by Faulkner and Klompaker that a new rental fee be set up for the theatre and Community Hall. The new rate, as of June 1, 1973 to be $50 for the theatre and $20 for the Community Hall, with $5 extra if the kitchen is used. Also that the rental fee for the Community Hall be $50 for a dance, and Jack McCaughen and Ken Stapley be so advised.

Motion by Martin and Valchur that the Bylaw Officer's report be received and filed.

The clerk was instructed to draft a letter to Earl Mackey, authorizing him to issue a building permit to Allan Howard on William Street, due to the fact it had been approved by the

MONDAY ISSUE

The next edition of the Stirling News-Argus, while it bears the date of May 16, the regular publication date, will actually come off the presses and be in the mail on Monday, May 14. This is being done to allow distribution in connection with the official opening of the Stedman's store under the ownership of Robert Falls, who purchased the business from former owner David Duffin earlier this year. As has been noted in the special ad of the past two weeks, the deadline for all advertising copy for this edition will be five o'clock Friday, May 11. This must be adhered to in order that the paper can be compiled and ready for the printing on Monday morning. Most advertisers who wish to make use of this edition, which will be mailed to 3,000 homes instead of the usual 1,500, will be contacted within the next week, but to make sure of their message being included, they can contact the publisher at 395-3321 at any time.

People responsible for publicity of local clubs which met on Monday, Tuesday or Wednesday of this week, are asked to have their copy in on Thursday or Friday as early as possible, so it will be published.

In view of the holiday for Victoria Day, which is celebrated May 21 this year, there will be no edition of the News-Argus published again until May 24. This will be a longer period than usual for readers to be without their paper, but under the special circumstances, we trust all will understand.

Stan Kosmack Installed Stirling Legion President

Branch #228, Royal Canadian Legion held its installation of officers on Tuesday, May 1, at the Legion Hall, Stirling. The ceremony was preceded with a pot luck dinner attended by over 40 Legion members. The installation was conducted by returning Zone Commander, Bert Bastedo and was assisted by Past Presidents Ray Tanner and Bill McMullen.

Officers and Executive installed were: Immediate Past President, Doug Patterson; President, Stan Kosmack; 1st Vice President, Carl Cooke; 2nd Vice President, Ron Welch and Executive Committee - Andrew Brown, Bob Cooke, Jack Gibson, George Noble and Ron Woodbeck. Sgt.-at-Arms Blake Faulkner was in charge of the Color Party which also took part in the installation ceremony.

NOT YET Prior to the installation a short business meeting was held. The meeting was informative that to date no final approval had as yet been received for the proposed Legion Fireworks Display usually held on the evening of the Victoria Day holiday. Due to new government regulations, a special permit has to be granted, it is expected that a final decision will be made known to the Legion in the very near future.

Retiring President, Doug Patterson presented Branch Honorary Memberships to Mr. Harold C. Martin, Mr. Harold West, Mr. Allan Munro, Mr. Bill Webber, Mr. Bob Hunter, Mr. Harold Thompson and Mr. Ray Short. These Honorary Memberships are in recognition of outstanding service to the Stirling Branch in past years.

TOP SPEAKER A special event was the presentation of a Public Speaking Trophy to Miss Sandra LaChapelle of Stirling for her success in the recent Legion Public Speaking Contest. Sandra won the trophy in the Zone for the Grade 10-13 competition. The trophy was presented by Branch Secretary Bert Bastedo who congratulated her for her success in Public Speaking for the past several years. Sandra replied stating, "The Legion has done a great deal to encourage students in this field of endeavor, and I wish to express my appreciation to all who have supported."

Mill Rate Down

Residents of Stirling got one good piece of news this week, their tax bills will go down slightly this year. According to the tax rate struck Monday night by Village Council, the rate for commercial taxpayers dropped 2.74 mills and the residential rate is down 2.83 mills. This means a drop in dollars of $2.74 per $1,000 of assessment and $2.83 respectively.

The Commercial rate is broken down as follows: County 4.50; Secondary Schools 5.19; Public Schools 5.72; Separate Schools 6.07; Village 6.60 and frontage 30 cents per foot.

The Residential rates for the same categories were 4.50; 4.67; 5.15; 5.46; 5.30 and 20 cents per foot frontage.

Dates for payment of taxes were set as June 29 and December 7, 1973.

News-Argus Notebook

COUNTY COUNCIL - Reeve Robert Anderson and Deputy Reeve Edward Klompaker were in Belleville Tuesday and Wednesday this week attending the regular session of Simcoe County Council. Among the items to be approved is the 1973 budget, which once set, means local municipalities can proceed to strike their tax rate.

KILLED BY TRAIN - Maxwell Barton, 28, was instantly killed Saturday afternoon in a car-train collision on the 10th Concession of Rawdon Township at the intersection with CNR tracks. His car was struck broadside by the ore train from Marmora. The car was carried 1,500 feet by the impact. Just recently moved to the Stirling area from Campbellford, he is survived by his wife Karen and a daughter.

WALKATHON - The annual Rotary Walkathon to raise money for the club's crippled children's work will take place Saturday morning. Walkers will leave the Senior Public School at 9 a.m. for the approximately ten mile long trek.

NOT THIS WEEK - Readers will notice a few new type changes in the style of the News-Argus but unfortunately the complete conversion planned did not materialize due to machine problems. The next edition, hopefully, will be primarily completed on the new facilities and we hope the change will be appreciated.

NEW PRESIDENT PINNED

president's pin to newly elected president of the local branch, Stan Kosmack. In

Welcome

It is appropriate this week to welcome four new papers to the offset family in Hastings County. The Marmora Herald, Norwood Register and Hastings Star, all owned by Don Mullan of Marmora, and the Bancroft Times, the largest weekly in the county, are all being produced in this manner. The first three made their debut last week in a new tabloid format, as well as converting to the offset method, while this week's issue of the Times is the first complete issue of that paper.

The offset method, which is used by Stirling, Tweed, Trenton and Deseronto, features a photographic process compared with the lead typesetting used in former years. It provides a much better looking product and allows more use of pictures, as the basic differences.

We wish all these new editions the best of success in their new venture. Conversion means a lot of long hours, but is worth it in the long run.

Talent Galore

Anyone who has any doubts about the talents and abilities of the young people in this community and area, had them quickly dispelled by attending the Annual Festival of Stars Concert Saturday night at the conclusion of the Festival of Sacred Praise.

The 25 items on the program gave a very good cross-section of the participants in the festival competitions, and from the calibre of those performances, it appears that the young people are truly dedicated to trying to provide the best within their talent scope.

The truly appreciative audience rewarded the various selections with excellent applause, and in addition, numerous awards and trophies were presented to winners as a mark of their achievement.

What was particularly impressive was the enthusiasm and decorum of the competitors, who came on without introduction, completed their selection and returned to their seats without any fuss. The whole audience was very attentive to the program, and considering the number of youngsters in it, was a fine tribute to the training of teachers and parents alike.

The Festival has grown each year with contestants, management and enthusiasm improving steadily. Soon it will mark a quarter century of service to the community and area. If the same devotion and attention were paid to all our other endeavors, it is difficult to comprehend how successful things really could be. There is no one person who deserves credit more than another, but all those who were involved deserve our thanks and support for making this annual event the continuing success it has become.

Pre-Schoolers Take Tours

April 30th through May 4th the Stirling Co-Operative Nursery School met at St. John's Anglican Church, due to the Festival of Sacred Praise being held in St. Paul's United Church. During the week the nursery pupils went on several trips.

They visited two farms, one being Richard Dracup's farm at R.R. 1, Stirling. They stopped at Ross Oldham's home on the Crowe River for lunch and a walk along the river. The pupils also visited the nursery school teacher, Mrs. Ken Book's farm at R.R. 4, Marmora.

On Wednesday they visited the Stirling Fire Department for a close-up view of the fire engine and other fire equipment. A visit was made to the Corby Library in Belleville where the children all enjoyed a puppet show and a short time to browse through the child.

THE ENVIROBUCK

There's money to be made out of environmental issues. But I wish there were more people trying to make money out of solving ecological problems and fewer trying to hustle a buck through exploiting them.

For example, The Save Our Earth Watch. The ad says, "Time is running out. If you really care, show the world." You are supposed to send the maker $20 for his watch. Can you really accept this as a genuine contribution to environmental protection? I can't.

Then there are the posters, the T-shirts, the silk-screened art prints, the buttons and all the other things you can buy for hanging, wearing, or whatever as an expression of commitment. If you think buying this stuff is a valuable personal contribution to the world's salvation, maybe you should be committed.

Everybody's jumping on the clean earth bandwagon and it's time some of the free-loading riders were pushed off. The company or association that makes loud noises about recycling, but doesn't take any active part in reclamation is grabbing a free ride on the bandwagon.

It's time for this sort of commercial environmental list to put his money where his mouth is.

If he does, he's entitled to claim credit for it. The stationery supplier who deals in recycled paper has a right to make it known. So is the printer who uses that paper.

The bottler who specializes in reusable bottles and sets up his operation to get the maximum rate of return and reuse should tell the world. He's doing his bit to cut down on our waste load and our litter problem.

The manufacturer who assumes the responsibility for setting up a plant that pollutes neither air nor water and pays the cost involved should be recognized publicly and commended.

But let's watch out for the free riders. Give credit... but only where credit is due.

Young Drivers Are Concern

A great cause for alarm is the accident involvement of our young people. Drivers in the 16 to 24 year age group make up 19% of all drivers but they account for 30% of all accidents and 37% of Fatal Accidents. For many years most of us have put this down to lack of driving experience. While this may be partially true, it is now becoming tragically clear that alcohol is very much involved.

In tests made it was found that the 16-19 year age group killed in fatal motor vehicle collisions had been drinking. About 66% of them had blood alcohol levels above the legal limit of .08%.

In the 20-24 age group the situation, while not quite as bad, is still alarming. Sixty-six per cent of drivers killed had been drinking but 100% of these had blood alcohol levels in excess of .08%.

Do You Remember?

25 Years Ago

At Madoc on Wednesday, the Progressive Conservatives chose Roscoe Robson, who represented the riding in the last Legislature, as their standard bearer to contest the election on June 7th. The Liberal candidate is George Jordan, of Hungerford Township.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Price of Lindsay were Sunday guests of Mr. and Mrs. R.A. Patterson.

Mrs. George Prince and daughter, Stirling, and Mrs. William Jeffery of Toronto were recent guests of Mr. and Mrs. Everett Cooke.

The staff and students of Stirling High School spent a very pleasant hour on Wednesday, April 21st, during the visit of Wilson MacDonald, outstanding (Canadian) poet.

Mr. and Mrs. Victor Graham and family spent Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Hilton Graham of Harwood.

Mr. and Mrs. Burton Sharpe and Carol of Mount Pleasant were dinner guests on Sunday of Mr. and Mrs. Bert Reide.

Mr. and Mrs. Warren Harlow spent Sunday at the home of Mr. Kenneth Stewart and Mrs. F. Stewart of Lakefield.

Minutes of the regular meeting of the Stirling Board of Education held on Tuesday evening at the office of the secretary.

Members present: C. W. Thompson, chairman; F. T. Ward, Dr. Faulkner, W. J. Reynolds, Dr. Walt, W. S. Martin, Dr. Aligar, John Shaw.

Miss Ethel Morrow has been visiting her sister, Mrs. B. Belshaw.

We are pleased to hear that Mr. Robert Tanner has recovered from his illness and is again resuming his duties as fireman in the mill owned by Morgan & Son.

Mrs. J.D. Bissonnette went to Toronto on Monday as a delegate to the W.F.M.S. convention held on the 5th, 6th, 7th and will spend the remainder of the week visiting friends there.

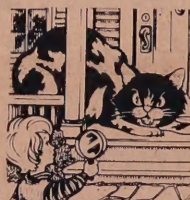

In the present month's "Westminster" a little poem entitled "Moira," is published from the pen of Mr. Arthur Phelps, the son of Rev. L. Phelps, who is invited to become pastor of Stirling Methodist Church.

DR. A'S MINI-TALES

The Mysterious Lens

It looked like an ordinary magnifying glass. Jimmy spotted it lying on the sidewalk. But when he looked through it, things disappeared. A stone, a button, a ladybug, even Jimmy's finger. He didn't know what to do until he tried turning the lens around. That was everything he looked at got bigger. He fixed his finger and turned a penny into a dinner-plate. He made giant birds and butterflies and tiny trees. Then on his front porch, Jimmy's cat Boswell hissed at him. Jimmy decided to shrink Boswell down and teach him a lesson. But he looked through the wrong side of the lens, and Boswell grew instead as big as a tiger. He roared and frightened Jimmy so much he dropped the mysterious lens. Jimmy dashed inside. But soon his mother wanted to go out shopping. What if Boswell ate her? She laughed when Jimmy tried to warn her. So he slipped out and found the lens again. Boswell came back and Jimmy shrank him down - oops! too far! Where was Boswell? Jimmy played with the lens some more. But then he looked through the lens into the mirror. And as he watched, the lens got smaller and vanished. His mother never believed him. But each day he put out a drop of milk for Boswell, and it disappeared with a tiny slurping sound.

Rebekah lodge

holds meeting

About 100 members and visitors to Laurel Rebekah Lodge #211, I.O.O.F. Temple, Stirling, were extended a very warm welcome by the Noble Grand, Sis. Marjorie Stapley, on Tuesday evening, April 22.

Sis. Alice Adams, District Deputy President of District #4 was introduced and welcomed along with guests from Brighton, Belleville and Madoc.

Sis. Vera Anderson, District Deputy President of District #5 was also introduced and welcomed.

The Initiation Staff of Brighton Lodge conferred the Rebekah Degree of the Order on Miss Debbie Ellis for Laurel Lodge and Miss Barbara Hembrey for Brighton, in a very impressive manner, after which the Staff Drill was well exemplified under the direction of the staff captain, Sis. Olga Stack.

Sis. Kathleen MacMullen, P.N.G., presented a very interesting report on the District #4 meeting in Belleville. Sis. Madeline Walker, Jr., P.N.G., will be Laurel's representative at the Rebekah assembly in the Royal York Hotel, Toronto, in June.

The members were reminded of our annual May-Time Tea being held in our Temple on Thursday, May 17th from 7:30 to 9:30 p.m. Members - this is your project so do come out with all your friends and support this Tea.

Sis. Edna Fox, P.N.G., on behalf of Laurel Lodge, presented Sis. Margaret Simpson, Noble Grand of Brighton Lodge, with a gift for her Lodge. Sis. Simpson accepted the gift and voiced the thanks of her lodge. Sis. Debbie Ellis and Barbara Hembrey expressed their pleasure for being received into the two Lodges.

Brother Harry Blakely, District Warden of Brighton District was introduced and on behalf of the Brothers from Brighton, expressed their thanks for the cordial welcome extended to them.

The Past Noble Grand of Laurel were invited to preside over the second lodge meeting in May. This invitation was accepted by Sis. Nora Wannamaker, P.N.G., and President of the Club.

The Noble Grand, Sis. Marjorie Stapley, thanked all who had taken part in the evening's activities and invited everyone to participate in the refreshments provided by the Committee in the banquet hall.

A hearty vote of thanks was expressed and thus ended another very pleasant evening with Laurel Lodge and their guests.

Guide News

The Guides had a busy day on Saturday selling 600 boxes of cookies. We hope everyone was satisfied with their service.

On Tuesday night we had a busy time trying to get back to regular routine after our Home Nurse Course. The patrol leaders marked roll books and balanced their cash book for the month of April. Following this, Mrs. Clarke conducted ed a lively game of "Spell the Word." The Oriole patrol won total points for this.

Flags were presented by the Canary patrol and O Canada was sung. Mrs. Sager was present to report our marks from the Home Nurse test. Twenty-three Guides passed the test and will be awarded the Home Nurse Badge.

Our next challenge quickly approaching is our weekend camp to be held on May 17, 18 and 19th. We spent part of the evening discussing for this event.

Another interesting program was presented for Camp Fire. This was prepared by Jennifer Hunter and Ellen Jones who were being tested for their Campfire leader badge.

The meeting closed with the singing of taps.

IN MEMORIAM

REID - In loving memory of a very dear friend, Richard Dick Allan Reid, who passed away May 1th, 1964.
We think of Dick
As a down-to-earth guy,
Just plain, like the wind,
The seas, and the sky;
We think, yes, we know he is gone from our side
But we think of Dick, with the utmost of pride,
As time unfolds another year Memories keep him ever near.
Silent thoughts of times together Hold memories that will last forever.
Sadly missed but ever remembered by Burton, Verna and family. 19-1

From - River Valley Farm
An expression of sincere appreciation.
Jeanette and Glenn Morrow famously wish to thank our neighbors, friends and relatives for their help on May 4, 1973.

To all the buyers and bidders, thank you very much and we wish you the best of luck with your purchases. 19-1

Many thanks to River Valley
W.I. for serving lunch.
After operating a mixed farming and dairy farm for 35 years, we had quite a decision to make. We hope we can contribute to till the soil, and serve the industry of Agriculture and our community, and have some fun doing it. We had planned our children to be carried on, but we all well know what is involved today in taking over a farm. To any young person who wishes to farm, he must like, very much, what he is going to do. Look ahead and plan for the future. The key to success in any profession, is getting the job done when it has to be done. My father, God rest his soul, told me and told me if a job is worth doing, it is worth doing well.

Betty and Bob Sullivan and their clerk, Mr. Wayne Shaw, have got to be three of the finest people we know. I don't know how anyone could be more honorable and fair to all concerned.

Our Auction Sale was a very rewarding success right from the word go.
We must thank God for a perfect day.

Burning Rectal Itch

Relieved In Minutes
Exclusive Healing Substance
Relieves Pain As It
Shrinks Hemorrhoids.

If you want satisfactory relief from "itching piles" - here's good news.
A renowned research laboratory has found a unique healing substance that promptly relieves the burning itch and pain - actually shrinks hemorrhoids. This substance has been shown to produce a most effective rate of healing. Its germ-killing properties also help prevent infection.

In case after case "Very striking improvement" was noted, even among cases of long standing. And this improvement was maintained over a period of months.

This was accomplished by a new healing substance (Bio-Dyso) - which quickly helps heal injured cells and stimulate growth of new tissue. Now Bio-Dyso is offered in ointment and suppository form called Preparation "H". Ask for it at all drug stores - satisfaction or money refunded.

CARDS OF THANKS

The family of the late Mrs.
Florence E. Morrow wish to express their deepest appreciation to relatives, friends and neighbors in Stirling and River Valley Community, and also Fraternal Organizations, for the beautiful floral tributes, cards, donations to the Heart Foundation and Memorial Window Fund of St. John's Church, and to everyone who offered kindness and sympathy during our recent loss of a loving Mother, Grandmother, Sister and Friend. A very sincere thank you to the Pallbearers, to Rev. C. Staples for his comforting message and to the Hogle Funeral Home for their kind and courteous service. 19-1

A pot or two of Parsley for the kitchen window is not only attractive but is handy for supplying garnishes and other flavoring soups. Sow seed in rows in the garden. In fall, dig the plants and remove all leaves except the two or three central leaves. Plant in good open soil mixture with the crown just showing above the soil. Give one heavy watering and place pot in full light in cool place. When plant is a fair size, the outer leaves may be removed as needed.

"WHAT DID WE DO WRONG?" Stirling WI Meeting

On Wednesday, May 2nd, the Stirling Women's Institute met at the Community Hall for a pot luck dinner. During the meal time, Mrs. Debbie Seeley, Stirling 4-H Homemaking Club leader, told an interesting story of the work being done by 10 girls to achieve their awards.

At 2 p.m. the members gathered for their meeting, with Mrs. E. Cooke welcoming all. With Mrs. H. David at the piano, all sang the Institute Ode and repeated the Mary Stewart Collect. Mrs. A.
Brooks called the roll with 23 present. The minutes were then read and signed.

The quilt committee have been busy and Mrs. Ayrhart handed in money from the sale of quilts. Mrs. A. Tanner gave the financial report, also presented bills for program printing and quilts needed. A nice bundle of prints were handed in for the quilts' work.

Mrs. Cooke requested members to bring a donation to the next meeting for the Edward Street Manor visit.

Monday Night Men's League

Men's Monday night bowling wound up on Monday with the last of the buy-off games being bowled. The regular league bowling was finished on Monday, April 23rd. The Odds and Ends wound up in first place but were not sure of the first spot until bowling was done on the final night. Year's high average went to Ray Poste with 233 but he gave it to Ralph Scea with 219, as Ray does not want to be all HOG since he owns the bowling alley. The year's high triple went to Ron McCrory with 859 and the year's high single went to Keith Johnson with 375.

Team standings at the year end were:

Odds and Ends	135 points
Maple Leafs	131 points
Good Guys	107 points
Alley Cats	87 points
Straw Dogs	84 points

In the play-offs the top four teams bowled a total of six games each with the overall total being the winner. Three games were bowled on Mon., March 20 and the final three on May 7th. During the play-offs the Odds and Ends never had to look back as they led in both nights of bowling. The winners had a total of 6652 pins for the year.

The Maple Leafs were second with 6504; third place went to the Alley Cats and fourth place to the Good Guys with 6287 and 5960 respectively.

Mr. and Mrs. George Carlisle and family attended the funeral of her brother-in-law Milo Wilbert Vanvolkenburg,
at the Howden Funeral Home, Marmora, on Wednesday.

Merrie Bowlers Conclude Kegling With Fine Feast

On Thursday evening, May 3, the Merrie Bowlers completed their season of bowling with a banquet in the Orange Lodge. They were served a most delicious turkey dinner by the ladies of the Orange Lodge.
Ruth Caswell said grace at the meal and Lillian Arbuckle volunteered to make the evening such a pleasing manner, voiced gay event.

Following dinner, Dilly Montgomery, president, made a few comments and the treasurer, Flo Parsonson, gave the financial report.

Prizes for the year were given out as follows: Helena Costing, high average 181;
Ruth Glover, high triple 699;
Barb Noble, high single 280;
Hazel Palmer, low score 70;
one raising average most from first day, Nellie Smith 32.

Team prizes were awarded to: 1st - Belles, 10th - Stut-cheon, captain; Barb Noble, Eleanor Adams, Nellie Smith, Flo Parsonson, Jean Cook; 2nd - Dingbats - Bessie Hew-son, captain; Ruth Glover, Tillie Prest, Ruby Tompkins, Olive Miller, Tillie Jeffries; 3rd - Meatheads - Lorna Wrightman, captain; Dilly Montgomery, Betty Hubble, Marion Palmer, Hazel Fleming, Isabel Heasman; 4th - Dingalings - Mildred Fraser, captain; Helena Costing, Lillian Arbuckle, Doreen Ackers, Maude McComb, Ruth Caswell.

On the receiving of their prizes the Belles, who all season had been credited with being the loudest and ringing the longest of the bellingers, gave an example of their ability at noise making, vocally, by Nellie Smith, others with bells and a ukelele capably handled by Eleanor Adams.
Their co-ordination was (terrific?)

Dilly Montgomery conducted the election of officers for 1973-74. They are: president - Nellie Smith, vice president -
Betty Hubble, secretary -
Ruby Tompkins, treasurer -
Lillian Arbuckle, captains - Dilly Montgomery, Flo Parsonson, Isabel Hutcheon, and Lorna Wrightman.

The latter part of the evening was fun time. Barb Noble won a guessing contest. She sure knows her macaroni.

Court Whist was enjoyed by everyone. Lillian Arbuckle came out in the lead, there, and Lorna Wrightman is looking for more coaching.

There were several draws.
The president, Dilly Montgomery, one of the prize purchasing group, got her eye on a lawn chair, thought it would be a nice draw prize, stored the chair until banquet night, and would you believe, took it home again! Congratulations Dilly. You can sit in your chair and relax, having completed a two year term as a really great president. Others receiving prizes were Eleanor Adams, Isabel Hutcheon, Barb Noble, and Tillie Jeffries.

A most enjoyable evening

Sore throat?

Chew Aspergum. Aspergum's medically recognized pain reliever effectively soothes the sorest throat. And it's so easy to take, children like it too. For soothing relief from a sore throat, chew Aspergum Cherry or Aspergum Orange. It helps.

HELP PLEASE

Due to a slight realignment of printing procedures involving the Stirling News-Argus, and the Tweed News, which are published by the firm of Quinte Web-Press each week, we are asking for the co-operation of press secretaries and others responsible for submitting news to the paper, in order to provide more efficient service, we will be preparing two pages of the paper late Monday afternoon or evening. In order that we have a chance to print all the news possible, we are asking that stories of events which occur Tuesday evening or later in the week, to be submitted to the News-Argus office or be in the mail, so it can reach us by 8 a.m. Monday morning. Frequently we receive news items Tuesday which could have been submitted sooner, and if they are in Monday morning, we will make every effort to have them in that week.

Senior Citizens

We have missed Pres. John Kane at our meetings lately but cheer up, he's on the mend and will soon be back. You can't keep a good Scotchman down long. Vice-Pres. Gord Bailey opened the meeting with "The Queen" and then 11 tables of euchre swung into action. Helen Williams and George Sarles were high and Fanny Kane and George McMillen were low. George Heasman qualified for low but lost out on the draw.

We extend our sympathy to Fred McDonnell and family in their recent bereavement.

May 17th will be a pot luck dinner at 12:30. Bring your own eating tools and your favorite dish of food.

The annual Senior Citizen picnic for our district will be held at Kingston on June 27th. It is expected the Queen will be in Kingston on that day. We are planning to charter a bus. More about this later.

After singing Grace, Ann Farmer, Mary Cook, Helen Sarles and Lucella Bronson served a tasty lunch.

Moderator will participate in Bay of Quinte Conference

A record high attendance is anticipated at the 49th annual Bay of Quinte Conference of the United Church of Canada, meeting in McArthur, Kingston, May 14-17. A revised system of representation will for the first time give the laity a much bigger voice. Previously laity and clergy were equally represented. Up to 600 delegates may be present this year, as contrasted to less than 400 in 1973.

Conference President, the Rev. John Smith of Whitby, has announced that Conference this year will stress three areas: "Affirmation, Commitment and Service." A president-designate, to take office in 1974, will be chosen from among four nominees, the Rev. Alex McDowell, Eastminster Church, Belleville; James Burn, Port Hope; Ray Milley, Edith Rankin Memorial Church, Kingston; and George Richardson, Perth.

Theme speaker is the Rev. Wilbur K. Howard of Emmanuel Church, Ottawa. Mr. Howard was for several years a member of the church's national office staff in Toronto.

Last year's "clergy day," a pre-conference event for ministers, received such popular acclaim that it has this year been made a part of conference and expanded to include the laity. Monday will feature a combined morning session, with separate clergy and laity afternoon seminars. In the evening, the Rt. Rev. Bruce McLeod, Moderator of the United Church of Canada, will meet with delegates in the evening. Dr. McLeod will also discuss with the Rev. Dr. Harold Arnap, Secretary of the church's national Division of France, "The state of the church" in the Tuesday evening program.

Among the conference highlights will be a presentation of "Joseph and his Amazing Technicolor Dreamcoat" by the young people of Knox Church, Peterborough, as part of the Division of Communications' report.

Two women and six men, graduates of Queen's Theological College, will be ordained to the ministry in Sydenham St. United Church at 7:30 p.m. Wednesday. These are Wendy Margaret Bullock, Gerald Robert Danford, Russell Lansdown Dean, Donald Carlyle Isner, Thomas Hamilton Lowry, Donald Henry Nicholson, W. George B. Phillips and Marian Ruth Stewart.

A total of 13 retiring ministers of the Conference, will be honored at a noon luncheon in McArthur Hall Wednesday. These are, from Belleville Presbytery: Rev. O. Glen Taylor; Cobourg Presbytery Rev. J.G. Berry Armstrong, W. Franklin Banister, Harold G. Lester, Roy A. Speer and Horatio Todd; from Oshawa Presbytery Rev. S. Arthur E. Cresswell, Ronald C. Hopkins, Harold A. Turner; and from Peterborough Presbytery Rev. S. Mary A. Dougherty and John W. Howse.

On the lighter side, volleyball teams representing each of the seven presbyteries will compete for the President's trophy, donated last year by then president, John Black, and won by Belleville. Combining entertainment and education, each evening a program of films will be presented by the Division of Communication.

News-Argus Notebook

BINGO WINNERS - Both the consolation jackpot prizes were won at the weekly Legion Bingo last week. Mrs. W. DeJong won the $25 and Mrs. Ormerod captured the $50 prize. The bingos are held biweekly at the Legion Hall on North St.

FIREWORKS DISPLAY CANCELLED - Due to lack of approval from the Provincial Government, the annual fireworks display sponsored by Branch 228, Royal Canadian Legion, is cancelled this year. Recent new regulations require a licensed supervisor for this program and there was no person available this year.

SPRING BROOK SERVICE - The annual Divine Service of Spring Brook IOOF Lodge 429 will be held at the Cordova Mines United Church, Sunday, May 27 at 2:30 p.m.

GRAND TROPHY WINNER

Ann Coombs, Belleville, was presented with the Grand Trophy, presented by Walter T. Elliott, at the Festival of Stars Concert at St. Paul's United Church last week. A member of the Centennial Secondary School Band, she took first place in Clarinet Solo, Adagio.

New Type Now

The Stirling News-Argus takes on a new look this week, as readers will immediately notice as they scan the pages. The reason for this improvement is the installation of new typesetting equipment which was put into operation late last week. The whole typesetting operation his week is done on the new system, with the exception of some left over feature material which has not been published.

Whereas the previous system meant only one kind of copy could be set, (such as you are reading now) with the new machine known as a Compuprinter, there are more choices. There is the use of boldface type (which appears bolder than the rest of the news copy); a chance to use sub-headings, which will live up the page from the standpoint of avoiding long columns of solid type and also the chance to use more type selections.

Beginning this week, the editorial on page four will be set in what is known as 10 point type, which makes an item stand out more, and gives a little variety to the pages. With the capabilities of this machine, we can also use type twice the size of this and twice the size of the editorial, just by making a few simple changes. In reality, this machine provides the News-Argus with selection of eight type faces, compared with the former one on the same machines.

The Compuprinter is produced in Wilmington, Mass., near Boston, by the Compugraphic corporation. Such is the demand for this type of machine, that each month's quota is usually sold before it is off the assembly line. In this area, the Marmora Herald converted to this type system last week when it went off set, as well as the other papers affiliated with it, the Norwood Register and Hastings Star. The Trentonian and Tri-County News has been using a Compugraphic system for about three years.

Robert Nixon Visits May 16

Jack Bush, newly-elected President of the Quinte Riding Liberal Association, chaired the meeting of May 9th, held at the home of Doreen Reid on the Wallbridge Road, which saw lively discussions on such topics as educational standards, ceilings on educational spending and membership drives. Fifteen members of the executive and directorship were in attendance.

Reports were heard from the delegates to the Federal convention in Ottawa, and mention was made of the leadership convention in Toronto scheduled for this fall.

Encouraged by the enthusiasm of the members of the Liberal Association, and by the large turnout, Mr. Nixon will attend a luncheon at the Four Seasons along with party supporters from the Napanee, Picton, Belleville, Trenton areas. On the evening of the 16th Mr. Nixon will be in attendance at the annual meeting in Napanee.

Official Opening of Stedman Store Wed.

Wednesday is the official Grand Re-Opening of the Stedman Store in Stirling, following the purchase earlier this year by Robert Fallis, formerly employed with the Stedman Head Office. The ceremonies are set for 10 a.m. Wednesday morning and Clarke T. Rollins, M.P.P. Reeve Robert Anderson of Stirling and officials from the Stedman organization will be on hand for the event.

A unique feature of the event will be that all three owners of the store, Harry Francis, David Duffin and Robert Fallis will be on hand. The franchise was originally opened by Mr. Francis in August of 1931 in the present location of MacKenzie Feeds, known as the Old Opera House. After two years, he moved the business to the east side of the present store. To the west was the furniture and undertaking firm owned by R.B. Duffin, which he opened in 1930.

Following Mr. Duffin's death in 1950, David Duffin took over the business and purchased the Stedman franchise from Mr. Francis in 1965 and sold the undertaking portion of the business to G.H. Hogle, who erected his present building on James Street. In 1967, Duffin merged the furniture store and Stedman business into one building.

In talks with Mr. Francis this week, he reminisced about the early days of work in Stirling. He estimated the population at about half the present 1500, with no development at all along the Belleville Road, Frankford Road or north on Highway 14. Stores in those days were open Tuesday, Thursday and Saturday nights, often until midnight or after in the latter instance.

All the help needed could be hired for $7.00 a week, while peanuts sold for 10 cents a pound; a pair of pants was 98 cents and socks 15 cents.

One special Mr. Francis remembers buying was a truckload of Proctor and Gamble soap which sold ten bars for 25 cents. Granite dishpans went for 25 cents each and galvanized pails for 19 cents.

In 1943, Mr. Francis was appointed as issuer of car licence plates and driver's licences, which he handled for 19 years. He was the first such agent in Stirling.

The only man still in business when he started in 1931 is Harold C. Martin, while Doug Patterson carries on his father's clothing business.

Opening day in 1931 saw the Stedman store do $1,000 worth of business.

The figure this year will likely be somewhat higher.

One member of the staff has worked for all three employees. Miss Jessie Johnson, who worked for Mr. Francis for 18 years, is still employed at the store, and has been with Stedmans locally for 26 years.

Festival Stars Show Talent In All Fields

A full house appreciatively witnessed the annual Festival of Stars which concluded the 23rd Annual Festival of Sacred Praise held last week at St. Paul's United Church, with some competitions at St. Andrew's Presbyterian Church and Stirling Senior Public School as well. The large audience heard a wide and varied cross-section of the entrants, selected by the three adjudicators as best representing the various classes.

The program was opened with the National Anthem and a prayer of invocation by Rev. John May. After the introduction of the first group, the Grades 4-6 Choir from St. John A. MacDonald School in Belleville, the balance of the performances came to the podium without introduction. Following are the other performances of the evening - "Steel Away," Kim Graff and Linda Hoard; Piano Solo, Linda D'Amico; Scripture Memory, Jennifer Hunter; Alpha Choir, St. John's United Church, Tweed; "Sing to the Lord a Joyful Song," Marsha Clancy; Scripture Memory, Jennifer Joslin; Piano Duet, Haw Jen Wong and Ursula Berger; Junior Choir, St. Andrew's United Church, Marjorie; "The Wise Men Bring

Their Learning," Brian Daxator; "There Is Joy in the Song We Sing," Kim Graff; Solo by Jane Burns; Public Speaking, Mary Ellen Thompson; Piano Solo, Daryl Diamond; Choral Reading, Stirling Senior School; "The Birds," Brian Roy; Clarinet Solo, Ann Coombs; Girl's Trio, Ann Foster, Patti Cope, Donna Palmateer; "My Task," Jennifer Jaynes; Piano Solo, Lee Stratton; Scripture Memory, Kim Bray; Piano Hymn, Dianna Wiersema; Back Solo, Ann Marie Aquino; Trumpet

Still Fishing Is Strenuous Which method calls for the most skill—bait fishing (sometimes called still fishing) or artificial lure angling? Surprisingly, bait fishing requires more expertise and better knowledge of fish habits than does most forms of artificial lure fishing. In fact, many experienced anglers who have considerable success with artificials don't use bait because they can't catch fish with it!

This is not strange when you consider the fact that bait—whether minnow, worm, crawfish, or insect—must appear on the hook exactly as it would in natural settings, while artificial lures can look and act like anything imaginable.

Also, fish take live bait because they're hungry, but they often strike artificial lures because they are agitated or aroused or somehow excited. And, like most animals, they'll do things under pressure which they wouldn't do normally. If you're not a bait fisherman, Red Fisher, the angling expert at Mercury outdoors, suggests you give it a try, for quite often it's the skilled "worm dunker" who makes the best catch.

Natural baits are best used with a spinning rod, fly rod or cane pole. The idea is to get the bait into the water as near the fish as possible with the least disturbance.

Brighton Track Opens May 19

That problem of what to do with your Saturday nights will be solved on May 19th when Brighton Speedway starts to roll with a bigger and better racing season for 1973.

Lou Reddon, the owner and manager of the number one action spot in the Quinte area has made a lot of changes and improvements in the track. Close to 100 loads of fill have been brought in to bank the two ends of the track, insuring faster racing than in previous years. The steel rails in front of the grandstands have been replaced by cement walls.

ROBERT (TOBY) BARTON

The funeral service for Robert Toby Barton was held in the chapel of the Weaver Funeral Home Monday, May 7. Rev. Gordon Ballantyne conducted the service with burial in Stirling Cemetery.

Bearers were Russell and Robert Anderson, Wayne Hadley, John Noble, Ross Saries and B.F. Kelly.

A resident of R.R. 1, Stirling, he died on the 10th concession of Rawdon Township Saturday, May 5.

In his 29th year, he was the son of Mrs. Harvey Cavanaugh and the late Carl Barton. He is survived by his wife, the former Karen Vandervoort and his daughter, Cathy.

He had lived in the Stirling area for 10 months after moving from Scarborough. He is also survived by his brothers Francis of Peterborough, Jim of Flagler Beach, Fla., and Joe of Campbellford.

He was attending Loyalist College and was a member of the United Church.

With the rising cost of everything and anything, the price for a full evening of stock car racing at it's best will be the same as in the past. The prize money will remain unchanged from last year with a driver capable of taking home $155.00 for a triple win.

An added plus for the fans this year. Speedway bikes will be racing every Saturday night as well as at least 60 cars which will be ready to roll on opening night, which will be May 19th.

A Free Day for drivers and fans will be held on Sunday, May 13th in the afternoon. This will be a chance to get the "bugs" out of that new machine and for the spectators to come out and look the track and cars over prior to opening night.

Besides the many Annual Awards and weekly prize money, the drivers will be running for a grand total of $1500.00 in cash at the end of the season in the "Red Cap Point Awards." This is an increase of $500.00 over last year. This extra money is divided up among the top drivers at the close of the year.

You can also win a set of top line tires compliments of an oil company each week on a lucky ticket draw. Several local fans went home with new rubber all around last year and the same firm will be back on opening night this season with the same prizes.

The Mini-Stock class is being dropped due to lack of interest in drivers and with not enough cars to make it of any interest to the fans.

The ever-popular Pick the Winner contest will be in the weekly program again this year where you can win as much as $100.00 by picking the first five finishers in the Super Feature in their exact order of finish each and every week. This money was won twice last year - once by Mr. Weese of Trenton who took home $170.00 and a couple of weeks later Mrs. Pomeroy of Concession took home the big money. Remember those two days coming up this month. Sunday, May 13th will be a Free trial day and the big night - the start of the 1973 racing season will be Saturday, May 19th with the first race getting underway at 7:30 p.m. sharp.

Do You Remember?
25 Years Ago

Mr. and Mrs. Duncan Montgomery, Oak Park Ave., Toronto, announce the engagement of their younger daughter, Shirley Isabelle, to William Dawson, son of Mr. and Mrs. Norman Shaw.

Mr. Fred Devolin of Toronto spent the weekend with his sisters and brother in town. Mr. and Mrs. Jas. Hough, Ormeau, spent the weekend in town. Mrs. Hough is remaining this week with her mother, Mrs. C.F. Linn.

Miss Shirley McKewen of Stirling enjoyed a trip on Friday and attended the Ice Review in Toronto featuring Barbara Ann Scott and Dick Button.

Mr. and Mrs. J.L. Good, Roberta and Janet Anne and Miss A.E. Good attended the Tink-Lewis wedding in Christ Church Cathedral, Ottawa, on Saturday. On Sunday they were guests of Mr. and Mrs. John Roberts, Lanark.

A business deal of interest was completed this week when Mr. J.E. Munro purchased the grocery business of Mr. F. Stapley. The new owner will take possession at once.

Recently this office received a renewal subscription to the News-Argus from Mr. E.J. Doak of Toronto, who left Stirling 50 years ago May 2nd, and has been a regular subscriber ever since.

The congregation of Wellman's United Church have decided to hold the Anniversary of the founding of the church in that place on Sunday, June 24th. The guest preacher will be Rev. Risco of Tweed. The Anniversary Committee are Willard Sine, Clarence Dunham and Mrs. Lorne Watson.

Transportation Week

Transport Minister Jean Marchand today proclaimed the week of May 13-19 as National Transportation Week in Canada, and predicted that Canadians in the years ahead, will become increasingly aware of the importance of transportation in their daily lives.

Mr. Marchand is Honorary Chairman of the 5th Annual National Transportation Week, which is held to recognize the role of the more than 600,000 Canadians who work in the field of transportation, keeping Canada on the move.

"Canada's vast geographical distances have generated the development of efficient and economical means of moving people and goods by land, water and air. The pace of this development has been maintained by today's transportation family who have accepted the challenges of an ever-changing field and, who provide the energy and imagination to keep up with the dynamic growth of the nation".

Every activity in this country depends to some degree on the resources of the transportation community. Because of this, Transportation Week has been set aside to give public recognition to this great industry, and to focus attention upon its valuable contributions and the challenges it faces in Canada's continuing development.

In proclaiming National Transportation Week, Mr. Marchand expressed the hope that all Canadians would support special activities being held by transportation organizations across the country to create a greater understanding of the expanding involvement of transportation in our day-to-day lives.

Victoria Day?

Most students attending school today, especially those under twenty years of age, have little, if any knowledge of the holiday which is being celebrated next Monday, and is known most commonly as Victoria Day. Once observed on the 24th of May, like most other holidays it has been relegated to a Monday, probably to suit labor more than any other segment of the populace. In doing so, this has probably contributed a lot to the decline in its meaning, which is by no means a happening solely related to this observance.

It is true that the principal reason for the holiday, marking the birthdate of perhaps the most illustrious monarch that ever wore the British Crown, has faded during the years. After all Queen Victoria died over 70 years ago, and the things for which her era stood have been largely eroded. The merits of this are not the point of this episode.

What has happened in the seven decades since Victoria are the result of democratic evolution in most instances, but it does seem that this erosion has cost those who were privileged to live in the various nations over which she was titled Queen, the chance to appreciate the incalculable impact and lasting contribution made during the 64 years known now as the Victoria Era.

During the period 1837-1901, the British Empire expanded to encompass about one quarter of the peoples of the earth. This expansion coupled as it was with the Industrial Revolution, resulted in the tremendous increase in world trade and associated developments, which raised the stock of the Empire to the highest of any in the history of man. Such processes were not without individual incidents which are cause for regret, but one must readily admit, if candid, that the overall picture was certainly a rosy one and of much benefit for the people of the world in general. As a by-product of the great development Britain enjoyed, other nations indirectly prospered, and a survey today of the countries that are now self-governing, that were once colonial domains of the weisland off Europe, would make for some interesting study.

It is these values and contributions that are wrapped up in the yearly holiday each May. In this day of advancing republicanism, which may have its merits, it is well we should reflect at least once a year on the course over which we have trod. Canada became an independent nation, albeit only four provinces strong, during her reign, and from such small beginnings, we have risen to a place of honor and respect in the councils of the world.

Queen Victoria's Day may have lost most of its influence for those today who use the weekend to open the cottage or go off on a vacation spree of brief duration. Even so, would this all be possible now without the basic structure on which our former Imperial masters laid for us in her name a century or more ago? It might be at least worth thinking about.

Keeping it clean with Bill Dodds

AS YOU SOW

In 1945, some deadly seeds were sown in the Baltic Sea. They are still bearing fruit. At the time, Europe was in ruins and the main concern of the victorious allies was to wipe out the instruments of war that had done much to devastate Europe.

The time of war was ended and there was a peace to build. All the world wanted was to obliterate the machinery that battle had created.

So there was no protest when the Soviet command ordered German ships to carry 20,000 tons of Nazi bombs to the deepest part of the Baltic for dumping. This disposal operation continued for three years.

The first crop of this deadly seeding was reaped in April, 1949. Copenhagen doctors treating four cases of food poisoning traced the contamination to a Danish trawler's one catch off the Baltic island of Bornholm.

The trawler's nets had pulled in a mustard gas bomb - all three crewmen had burns from the caustic oily contents - and contaminated water from the bomb had touched the fish they were cleaning.

The number of food poisonings continued and increased to the point where the city of Copenhagen banned all sales of cod roe from fish caught in the area of Bornholm.

Between 1968 and 1972, there were 16 reported incidents in which gas bombs were netted in the Baltic, and nobody knows how many similar catches were unreported.

The Danish authorities assure consumers there is no danger - that mustard gas cannot pass into the food chain and on to the person who eats fish caught in this area. And as a further precaution, fishing is limited in the hazardous area.

But the burned fishermen are just one example of the dangers that can lie in the depths when hazardous wastes are dumped in the ocean with no thought for tomorrow.

This and other situations teach a grim lesson. Man's production and wastes are so complex and so fraught with potential for harm, that we must give careful thought to disposal of these wastes.

The things we bury carelessly can rise up to haunt us in the future.

65 Years Ago

The annual convention of the North Hastings Teachers' Association will be held in the town hall at Bancroft on May 21st and 22nd. The Central Ontario Railway will issue return tickets for single fare, good going May 21st, and return up to May 28th.

A number of the members of St. Andrew's choir gathered at the home of Mr. Thos. Montgomery Sr. on Sunday evening and held a short song service. Mr. Montgomery has been unable to attend church for years, but the members do not forget his faithfulness in past days.

Exceedingly attractive is the May number of "Rod and Gun and Motor Sports in Canada" published by W.J. Taylor at Woodstock, Ont. Stories of hunting moose, mountain goat, bear, deer and ducks surely offer enough variety to the hunter, while to the fisherman the papers on salmon in Ontario rivers by the Rev. Dr. Murdoch, and maskinonge fishing by W. Hickson must call up memories and awaken thoughts such as only the fisherman can know.

Mr. Ralph Scott of Nanapanee is visiting at Mr. W.S. Martin's.

Mrs. F.B. Parker returned last week from Kingston where she spent the winter months.

Fresh strawberries were displayed in Mr. Anderson's shop window yesterday, and were offered at the moderate price of 50 cents per box. They were not home grown, but imported from California.

Boundry to Belleville to rehearse and perform with the band and choir has been underwritten by the Ontario Arts Council which has accepted this unique project as a worthwhile experience for the participants.

Martin Boundry, as Director of Music at Fanshawe College, directs a College band as part of his duties. In addition, through the Department of Community Services, he directs a band made up of local citizens, university students, and senior high school students. Mr. Boundry also directs a four-county choir of 200 voices which performs annually with the London Symphony. A former conductor of the London Symphony, Mr. Boundry directed that orchestra for 20 years. Not content with such a schedule, Mr. Boundry conceived and has

CANADIAN POLICE WEEK
MAY 13 TO 19, 1973

As Commissioner of the Ontario Provincial Police, it is my pleasure to invite the public to visit our establishments during Canadian Police Week.

Our members throughout the Province will be pleased to discuss with you the law enforcement process. They will help you gain a better understanding and greater appreciation of the Police function.

In becoming acquainted with Ontario Provincial Police Officers you will discover their dedication to duty and commitment to the Rule of Law. Every member of the force is a guardian of your life and property. You receive his service and protection. He deserves your support and respect.

H.H. Graham, Commissioner.

Outstanding Musical Show Planned For Belleville

Hastings County Music Educators' Association will present a major event in the world of musical activity Thursday night, May 17 in the Belleville Memorial Arena.

A massed band of some 250 high school students, assisted by a choir of 600 voices, will present a concert under the capable direction of Martin Boundry, Director of Music, Fanshawe College, London, Ont.

Members of the band represent six of the secondary schools in Hastings County, being drawn from the most part from senior bands. The choir is composed of students from elementary schools in Belleville, Trenton, Tweed, Mar-Mora, L'Amble, Paudash, and from North Hastings High School, Bancroft.

The concert, originally conceived as part of the Quinte Arts Council annual April arts festival, had to wait until the ice had been taken out of the Belleville arena.

Band and choral selections will range from early and classical music to modern pieces, such as "I Want To Teach The World To Sing" and "Sound of Music".

LEGION TROPHY PRESENTED

Bert Bastedo, Zone Commander and member of Royal Canadian Legion Branch 228, Stirling, presents the local Legion Public Speaking trophy to Sandra LaChapelle. Sandra was Hastings County champion in prepared speech competition and judged one of the best in the Eastern Ontario zone final at Carleton Place. The presentation was made at the annual Installation Meeting of the Legion Branch last Tuesday night.

W. BRUCE ADAMS

W. Bruce Adams, 63, director of the teaching-aids department at the Toronto Board of Education, died recently, following a lengthy illness.

He was a pioneer and innovator in audio-visual teaching techniques. Teachers and school administrators from throughout the world studied facilities he developed. Many school boards modelled their departments on his programs, including that of training teachers in the use of photographic, electronic and printing equipment.

He became a teacher in 1929 at Fern Ave. Church St. and Central Technical Schools, he was known for his use of stereoscopic photography and other devices to stimulate students.

After joining the department in 1948, he urged the use of radio and television in teaching.

He supervised the distribution of film to schools, produced many tape recordings and visual effects not available commercially, and tested and developed new equipment before it was used for school use.

Visiting educators often called his department "best of its kind in North America."

He operated a ham radio unit in his North York home.

He leaves his wife, Elsie, and children Rev. Lynne Adams of Hornby, Ont., and John.

Bank of Montreal Provides Farmers With New Program

The Bank of Montreal today announced a three-point program designed to serve the needs of Canadian farmers, C.F. MacNaughton, senior vice-president in charge of the Manitoba-Saskatchewan Division, said the program will include:

1. Agri-Credit Plan - to provide farmers with larger loans at longer terms.

2. Farm Creditor Life Insurance - a service now offered by several other banks, but the Bank of Montreal's plan offers substantially lower insurance rates to younger farmers.

3. Tax Accounting System - a simple and inexpensive computerized system designed to assist farmers in preparing their income tax returns.

Firstbank Agri-Services, will be available on April 30 in the four Western provinces and in Ontario on June 1. The Farm Creditor Life Insurance service and credit service will be introduced into Quebec and the Maritimes also on June 1.

The result of a comprehensive study on basic financial needs of Canadian farmers, Firstbank Agri-Services was detailed by Donald Gibb, an agrologist who will head an expanded agriculture department. The Bank announced two extensions to the department which to date has operated out of Winnipeg and Calgary. The establishment of these new agricultural offices - to be located in Regina and Toronto - follows by a year the Bank of Montreal's formation of a department to devote its full attention to all segments of the agricultural community in Canada and "...to develop and recommend annual and longer term marketing plans and programs for the agricultural community".

Mr. Gibb said the three services are part of the Bank of Montreal's planning to provide a variety of programs for its customers, and additional services are being developed for farm clients to be introduced over the next several years.

"What we have done is to assess the different financial needs of farmers and come up with programs to provide substantial improvements," said Mr. Gibb.

Mr. Gibb said Firstbank Agri-Services takes into account the different financial needs of the various farm enterprises. For example, the farmer with a dairy herd has differing requirements from a farmer engaged in beef cattle production. In all, eight different plans will be available for eight farm enterprises.

THE STIRLING NEWS-ARGUS, Wednesday, May 16, 1973 5

cover the amount of the loan the farmers will have with the B of M. This optional group creditor life insurance plan will be underwritten by the Great-West Life Assurance Company of Winnipeg.

As an additional service available through this program, the Bank of Montreal will be the first Chartered Bank to offer a service of the Canadian Farm Management Data System or CanFarm to its farm clients. CanFarm, which was started in 1965, is a nation-wide, computerized farm record system designed to help farmers with major business decisions by making it easier for them to obtain and analyze the information they need, when they need it.

The Bank will offer "TaxPak" as the third part of the Agri-Services program, enabling its farm customers to obtain a detailed tax accounting system for $30. a year. "Our investigation showed that about 80 per cent of farmers don't have an adequate accounting system, and they now need better services in this area particularly in light of recent changes in Canadian tax laws," said Mr. Gibb.

TaxPak will be available through any branch of the Bank of Montreal. All information will be kept strictly confidential - the only people with access to information will be the client and his local branch manager.

To complement the above three-point program, the Bank of Montreal will be expanding its agrologist services to its farm customers, providing financial management assistance on request.

Hastings Trail Not Being Used

Hastings County Council recently turned down a request from the Hastings-Algonquin Trail Association for a grant of $500 to keep its administrative affairs in order.

The request to council was in the form of a letter from James Staveley, president of the trail association.

Clearing of the trail, which extends from Lake Ontario to Algonquin Park, was accomplished through a LIP grant.

DR. A'S MINI-TALES What Do You Do With a Dinosaur?

On a camping trip in Alaska, Professor Burns and his son Mark found a real dinosaur egg. It was frozen solid in glacier ice. They took it home and warmed it up - and a baby Brontosaurus hatched out of it! Professor Burns wanted to study the dinosaur himself. So they hid "Bronty" in their house. He slept in a laundry basket in the basement and swam in the bathtub and ate lots of fresh greens. Nobody knew he was there. Then one day Mark took Bronty for a walk to the supermarket. The little dinosaur didn't mean any harm. But he ate six heads of lettuce and knocked down a whole pile of cans with a swish of his tail. Soon the neighbors were buzzing about the Burns' strange pet. "That thing may eat our children!" they shouted. "Get it out of here, or we'll call the police." Professor Burns decided to give up the dinosaur the next day. But early in the morning, Mark sneaked out with Bronty and hid in the bushes near the lake. After a while they heard screams from the middle of the lake. Two boys were drowning. Mark jumped on Bronty's back, and they swam out to save the boys. Now Bronty was a hero, and the neighbors were proud to have him living there.

Kenzie said he always thought the trail was a white elephant and he still thought so.

One councillor suspected administration took much of the grant money which went into the trail and suggested that Montague Reeve S.J. Carr recommended that no action be taken on the grant request and the motion was carried. The same would happen to any county grant.

Madoc township Reeve Cecil Woods said he hadn't heard of anybody using the trail for hiking and commented that it wasn't intended for snowmobiling.

And anyone using it in the summer would be eaten up by blackflies and mosquitoes, he said.

Institutes Hold Instruction Seminar

The 5th Officer Conference of Federated Women's Institutes of Ontario met at the University of Waterloo on May 1, 2 and 3. Despite grey sky and rain, 637 delegates came by plane, train, bus and car to the lovely campus. The vast majority were attending the Conference for the first time. The purpose of this conference of Women's Institute members is a training school for officers. This time the groups were Secretary - Treasurer, under the chairmanship of Mrs. Wm. G. Miller, Highland Creek; Citizenship & World Affairs, convener, under chairman Mrs. John Herman, Weston; members - at large group, with Mrs. Edward Urstadt, Owen Sound.

On the first day 55 members were taken by bus to visit the Erland Lee Home where the Women's Institute purchased last year. Mr. Lee was co-founder with Mrs. Hoodless of the Women's Institute.

There was also a tour of the computer centre at the Waterloo University. There were several showings of the 75th Anniversary tape, which took place in Toronto in February 1972. It also afforded the women the opportunity to visit the Public Relations display set up in Village 11 and purchase the Ontario W.I. Story "Humanities in Homespun," by Dr. Edith Chapman, contributing membership to the Associated Countrywomen of the World and other W.I. supplies. This is arranged by the Provincial public relations Officer, Mrs. Harvey Houston, Lucknow. Details of the Conference were in charge of Conference Secretary-Treasurer, Mrs. Robt. B. Weber, Bloomingdale and the bus tours to the Erland Lee Home by the chairman of the Home Committee, Mrs. Austin Zoeller, New Hamburg.

May 2nd, the Conference met in the Junanities Theatre. Mrs. Harvey Noblitt, Ottawa, Provincial president, spoke on the theme: "When the freedom they wished for was freedom from responsibility, then Athens ceased to be free and was never free again." Edith Hamilton (Historian).

To the Greeks their most precious possession was their freedom. They were willing to fight for it, if it meant death to the last man. Freedom was born in Greece because men limited their own freedom. Self discipline was a way of life, the limits were good. There was a willing obedience to the written and unwritten law. They revered their government and gladly served it. Responsibility is the price every man had to pay for freedom. When we relinquish to administrative bodies our rights and responsibilities, even our homes are threatened, children have been set against parents, parent against parent, families against families.

A delightful Wednesday evening session entitled "You Can Do It," presented a monologue by John Richardson, St. Mary's; a skit by Board Directors Mrs. Edward Urstadt, Mrs. Emerson Emke, Mrs. Herb Maluske of the Grey-Bruce area, advice on how to attain new members. During the presentation Mrs. Noblitt reported 142 branches of the 1,292 in Ontario had attained a 20 per cent increase in membership. A skit by Mrs. John T. Taylor and Mrs. Ford Sudden, Cambridge area, and several "Let's Sing" sessions led by Mrs. Laurel Malby, rounded out an evening of relaxation.

A welcome to the Campus was extended by the president of the University, Dr. Bert Mathews, who has had a long association with the FWIO. Ontario is a better place for

Loyalist Instructor Honored By Society

Val Baltkals, instructor of photography at Loyalist College has been named Associate of the Royal Photographic Society of Great Britain. This award recognizes "standard of achievement in the art and science of photography or in the sciences or technology contributing thereto" and entitles the holder of the designation to use the distinguishing letters ARPS after his name.

Mr. Baltkals, who begins his fourth year of teaching at Loyalist next fall, has distinguished himself by his ability to implant in his students a practical mastery of picture elements: performance on a high technical level and development of a sensitive eye and individual style. His own work, along with that of his students has been on show at the Belleville Public Library and the Quinte Arts Council's annual Artsfest where last year he was the "featured artist."

His submission to the awards panel was in the educational section where an applicant must demonstrate the use of photography for educational purposes along with evidence of his ability to teach photography.

Among Mr. Baltkals' entries was a selection from his forthcoming textbook "Nude in the Classroom" along with the booklet "Photography at Loyalist, Portfolio 73," recently published by Loyalist.

VAL BALTKALS

College in co-operation with Loyalist's Photo Club. The latter represents students' work during the various stages of their photographic education under Val's guidance and bears strong evidence of the multitude of approaches and techniques handled in the course.

Apart from working on several texts for Loyalist's photography courses, Val also plans to publish his own portfolio during his summer holidays, and if time permits, to squeeze in a brief trip along B.C.'s northern coastline, photographing its fjords.

Thirty canoeists from Washington, Alaska, British Columbia, the Northwest Territories and Yukon will paddle more than 500 miles from Bennett, B.C. to Dawson City, Yukon as part of the Klondike 73 celebrations next August. They will make the Yukon River trip in 13 days.

Recreation Safety Tips

A lifejacket is the most important piece of safety equipment carried in your boat and often the most neglected. They are sat on, stuffed into oily bags and given little thought until a crisis arises when they could save your life. Unless a lifejacket is properly cared for and kept in good condition, it is very apt to let you down when you need it most.

The Ontario Safety League suggests some rules for keeping a lifejacket in good condition:

To dry a wet lifejacket, hang it up in the open air, never in front of a radiator or other source of direct heat. When dry, store in a well ventilated, cool area.

Do not abuse a lifejacket by using it for any other purpose such as a seat cushion, boat fender or kneeling pad and keep it away from contact with oil, grease, alcohol or gasoline.

Kapook lifejackets are especially susceptible to rough treatment. If the air-tight vinyl covering which contains the kapook is split or torn, the kapook fibers will become waterlogged and lose their buoyant properties. It is then useless and must be discarded.

Lifejackets made from unicellular foam are more durable than kapook types. Rough treatment will eventually break down the foam cells which also tend to shrink with age or excessive exposure to heat or sunlight.

The Ontario Safety League recommends a thorough check on lifejackets at the beginning of every boating season. If they are not in perfect working condition, get rid of them and buy new ones. Remember, a lifejacket could save your life.

Mount Pleasant

(by Mrs. Percy MacMullen) Miss Bonnie Williams, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Williams, has returned home after completing her first year at Trent University, Peterborough.

Mr. and Mrs. Jim Milne, Oshawa, spent the Mother's Day weekend with Mrs. Leonard and other relatives.

A group of neighbors on the Anson line spent Saturday evening, May 12th, with Mr. and Mrs. Douglas Campbell, Douglas and Joanne, in their new home in Stirling. Gifts were presented on behalf of the Mount Pleasant Community.

Mrs. Frank Wager and Mrs. Percy Garrett of Picton spent Monday, May 7th with Mr. and Mrs. Milton Shaw.

Mrs. Fred Smith is spending some time in Campbellford Memorial Hospital.

Mrs. Milford Wrightman entertained several friends on Tuesday evening at the home of the WAGER family.

No one could have foreseen the connection between a WAGER and the MOTION PICTURE industry. That's just the point. SO MANY IMPORTANT THINGS HAVE STARTED IN SUCH INSIGNIFICANT WAYS! But—the story:

The incident happened in Sacramento in the year 1877. Two famous sportsmen of the day fell upon a discussion of a sport they were both fond of: horse-racing. One of them was Leland Stanford (for whom the famous university is today named) and the other was a noted sportsman of the day. The point of the discussion seemed to be whether all four legs of a horse were on the ground at the same time during a run, a gallop or canter.

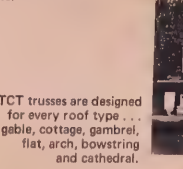

You must remember that this was before the days of advanced photography and it was difficult to prove what today seems simple. Indeed! Feeling become keener as the sportsmen differed, irreconcilably, on this point, it ended in a wager of some five thousand dollars. And then it was necessary to devise ways and means of complete proof.

It was finally determined to utilize the talents of a noted photographer of the day, Edward Muybridge of New York, and the solution of the problem was placed entirely with him.

Muybridge ingeniously devised a battery of sixteen cameras, placed within a foot of each other along the course to be traversed by a champion race horse of the day. To each of these camera's shutters a string was attached that would be tripped by the horse's legs as he ran, galloped, cantered across the prescribed course. In this way, he would be photographed in sixteen different positions.

TCT trusses, with spans well in excess of 100 feet, are commonly used for commercial and farm buildings, arenas, rinks, etc.

TCT trusses are designed for every roof type... gable, cottage, gambrel, flat, arch, bowshed and cathedral.

The ability to withstand extreme weight and pressure make TCT roof trusses ideal for cottages and other structures that must withstand heavy snow loads for long periods of time.

Torturing, brute force loads prove the tremendous strength and holding power of TCT trusses.

Tuesday evening, May 8th, to a demonstration party.

Mrs. Margaret MacMullen and her niece, Mrs. Wendell Pond spent Tuesday, May 8th with Mrs. Jay Easton, Belleville.

Mrs. Frank Andrews, Mrs. Milton Shaw, Mrs. Donald Johnson, Mrs. John Morgan and Mrs. Larry Collins attended an art show and tea in the Legion Hall, Brighton, on Wednesday afternoon.

Mrs. Morgan and Mrs. Collins displayed their paintings. Kimmy Jeffs, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Jeffs, underwent a tonsilectomy in Peterborough Hospital on Monday.

Mrs. Sid Demorest, Marmora, recently won a Micro-ave oven in a contest. The gift was delivered this week.

Mrs. Robert C. Hoard and Mrs. Herbert Smith attended a demonstration party Monday evening at the home of the

WAGER family.

Now, the story ends in two ways: it definitely established the fact that all four legs of a horse DO leave the ground, thereby earning the wagered sum for its sponsor. But far more important result....

Thomas A. Edison was the most important inventor of the day. His interests had led him into many and varied fields. But it was never in the direction of photography.

One day Edison chanced upon the series of pictures that had been prepared by Muybridge in his settlement of the wager. In a flash, he saw in it the central idea of continuous motion: if these intervals between the movements could be made shorter, there would be a more realistic effect of continuous motion.

That was all that was necessary for the fertile and inventive mind of the Wizard of Menlo Park. It was the beginning of a long series of experiments in the field of continuous motion. It was the beginning of Edison's interest in the pioneer motion pictures with which his name is imperishably linked.

former's daughter, Mrs. Earl Akey, Ivanhoe.
Mr. and Mrs. Milton Shaw entertained to dinner on Saturday evening, May 5th, Mr. and Mrs. Burton Sharpe and Mr. and Mrs. Frank Andrews.

On Thursday, May 10th, Rev. W.C. Cox accepted a call to the Grafton - Castleton charge. He has served Rawdon charge for the past eight years. A combined board meeting was held Friday evening, May 11th at Bethel United Church.

Mrs. Percy MacMullen has completed 23 years of reporting the Stirling Festival of Sacred Praise for the Belleville Intelligencer. The late Rev. A.E. Baker had the vision of such an event in 1950 and he with Mrs. Baker, gave hours of time and thought in order to promote the Festival. Rev. Baker also interviewed Dr. Gerald Morton, Belleville.

YES, TCT ROOF TRUSSES SIMPLIFY THE TRICKY BUSINESS OF BUILDING A SOUND ROOF... BUT THAT'S NOT ALL!

TCT roof trusses make any roof less expensive to build... you'll save money on materials and labour. You'll build a stronger roof, too. TCT trusses are engineered to withstand even the heaviest loads without movement or deflection. And, you can build a roof faster with TCT trusses. The speed and simplicity inherent in this advanced roofing system means that any building can be quickly closed-in so that interior construction can proceed independent of weather conditions. TCT trusses also allow greater flexibility in design... there's no need for any interior load-bearing walls so you have complete freedom of room arrangement.

If you're doing the job yourself, then investigate the many advantages that TCT roof trusses offer. We'll show you how to save money, how to build a stronger roof, and we'll show you how to do it faster and easier, too. Or, ask your contractor or architect to specify TCT trusses.

Less than 20 years ago, Grand Bahamas Island was nothing but a mass of scrub and swamp. Canadian millionaire Wallace Groves came along in the mid 1950s and built a city called Freeport, which today is resplendent with glitter, humming with commerce and laden with opulence. With opening of first hotel in 1964, and the International Bazaar in the centre, plus Casino at it.

New Freeport attraction Named after Canadian

FREEPORT, Grand Bahamas Island—Probably the most famous Canadian now living in the Bahamas is E. P. Taylor, the millionaire business tycoon who has resided on Lyford Cay, near Nassau, for a number of years.

The name of Wallace Groves, however, is not known to the average Canadian. Yet this energetic Canadian millionaire, who amassed his fortune in the United States, was responsible for one of the most incredible feats of tourist development ever undertaken.

Before the mid 1950s, Grand Bahamas Island, about 90 miles northeast of Miami, was completely undeveloped. Suddenly, in 1955, Groves appeared and convinced the Bahamas Government to grant him land and a guarantee against any form of income tax until 1990, for the purpose of developing the island. The results have been spectacular. In 1964, with the opening of the Lucayan Beach Hotel, the city of Freeport turned into a booming resort area almost overnight.

Today, Freeport attracts approximately the same number of Canadian visitors as Nassau, capital city of the Bahamas, located on New Providence Island. And Canadian business is playing a vital role in the continuing development of Freeport/Lucaya as a tourist destination.

As Freeport owes much success to Groves, it was only fitting that the city's newest tourist attraction should be named after the Canadian financier. Thus, "The Garden of the Groves", opened recently, is a monument dedicated to the founder of the resort.

The attraction is situated on an 11-acre tract of land, with a tropical garden featuring a collection of trees, exotic plants, ground covers and vines representing the tropic and subtropic belts of the world.

A FORUM ABOUT MATURE WOMEN

"When you're first widowed you don't want independence. You still want to be tied. But that independence becomes something pretty valuable as you go through life."

Dorothy MacKenzie never thought she'd be able to say that when she lost her husband eight years ago. Left with two children and a gas station, she was bombarded with advice from well-meaning friends. "I took time off and quietly thought out their suggestions," she says, "but in the final analysis you have to make up your own mind."

Though it was by no means one quick step from being half-a-couple to becoming a strong single, Dorothy MacKenzie has made the adjustment. Now in her mid-forties, she's part of a new breed: the independent widow.

Older widows are also liberating themselves, according to Loyola University sociologist Helena Lopata. In a study of 301 older widows in the Chicago area, she found only 22 living with their children.

"The tradition of the three-generation family where the mother is helping with the housecleaning and the cooking is simply passe," Dr. Lopata notes.

Most of the women she interviewed said they preferred staying as mistress of their own home to moving into a household where they'd have to abide by another family's rules.

"One woman told me she visits her daughter for a few weeks every year," says Dr. Lopata. "The last time she was there the daughter said, 'Mother, if you would just learn to keep your mouth shut you could live with us.' And she mother said to me, 'Now tell me, how can I keep my mouth shut and live?'"

Dr. Lopata reports that once modern widows get over their initial shock and grief, they work at maintaining their independence. Some seek ways to increase their ability to manage on their own; others find it thrust upon them. A woman in her sixties told the sociologist that her son insisted on teaching her how to drive. "It's the best thing he did," the widow said. "Now when I want to go somewhere, I can go by myself. I don't have to wait for people to take pity on me and come pick me up."

SECOND MARRIAGES? Now that it's acceptable in society for a woman to live alone, younger widows say they are not under as much pressure to remarry. Dorothy MacKenzie explains that while it "could happen" some day, "marriage for the sake of marriage doesn't particularly appeal to me."

Settled into a comfortable home life with her two teenagers, she worked as a telephone counselor with the "Widow's Service Line" in this Boston suburb until the supporting grant ran out recently. Having experienced widowhood herself, Mrs. MacKenzie feels she can tell other bereaved women that "life does get better. It's not the same, but you will make a new life."

And, she reflects, the independent life can be a good one. "I don't want to give anyone the impression that we're happy we're widows. We'd rather have our husbands, but we can't and this is what we have and we're not unhappy about it."

STRAUSS, THE SON

Stuart Wilson plays the role of the son of Johann Strauss in the seven part series on CBC TV Sundays at 9:00 (starting April 29) telling the colorful story of the Viennese family which gave the world its most memorable music. Eric Woof stars as Johann Strauss senior.

TREMENDOUS TRIFLES

THE FIVE DOLLAR HORSE PURCHASE THAT TURNED INTO A MILLION

A down-at-the-heels man once approached a St. Louis horse trader named Dan Honig with an offer to sell his horse, sight unseen, for five dollars. Expecting only a plug, Honig bought the horse out of charity. In just a few years that horse made him a million dollars and the retired with his fortune! Here's how.

When Honig and his son got the horse, they found a spirited well-formed animal instead of the spavined creature they had been expecting. Honig was convinced that there was something wrong with the horse, but the son insisted that they give it the best of care and attention for a few days and see what developed.

Honig and his son became curious about just what the horse could do. They entered him in a Fair Grounds race. They decided on the name All-Black. His chances of winning that first race were quoted at one hundred to one. Nobody bet on him except Honig and his son, who placed a few dollars on his chances. All-Black won his race by twenty lengths.

But the Fair Grounds horses were very slow travelers and winning one race was no proof that All-Black was a great horse. Honig entered his five-dollar horse at the Guttenberg track, where the going was faster. The betters knew nothing of All-Black and were not impressed. They offered 50-to-one against him. Honig and his son had more confidence and they placed about one hundred dollars in various small amounts. All-Black won and the Honigs were fifty thousand dollars richer!

That started it. All-Black won eighteen races. His earnings paid for more horses which Honig bought. With them he won more races, more money. Shortly after, Honig opened his own track, a course called Gloucestre. He continued to prosper. In two years he had cleared a million dollars. Then Honig retired. He took his cash and departed. He was a millionaire. He owed it all to the horse he bought for five dollars.

Broccoli and sliced turkey combine with a savoury Holland imported Gouda sauce in an easy variation on an old classic main dish.

Gouda Divan

LOCAL or imported broccoli can now be had throughout the year. A delicate vegetable, it takes on new character as a main dish when combined with sliced turkey or chicken enrobed in a rich sauce. You will find Holland imported Gouda ideal for the sauce since it does not become rosey or stringy in the sauce and forms a good crust when broiled.

- 1 bunch broccoli
- 6 large slices cooked turkey
- salt and pepper
- 1 cup cooked rice (1/2 cup raw)
- 2 tablespoons butter
- 2 tablespoons flour
- 1 cup milk
- nutmeg
- 14 ounces grated imported Holland Gouda cheese
- Cook broccoli quickly in a

Calorie Conference Held In Stirling

(By Mrs. Percy MacMullen)
On Tuesday evening, May 8th, approximately 90 women from Hastings West District and Hastings North District attended a Food Forum entitled "Calorie Countdown" in Stirling Community Hall.
Miss Kate Ann Wahl, Home Economist for Hastings County welcomed the group and introduced Miss Bonnie LeCroix and Miss Anne Urquhart from Toronto Home Economics Branch of the Ontario Department of Agriculture and Food. These girls were dressed in white and displayed trillium pins - the floral emblem of Ontario.
Each lady in attendance received a very interesting booklet outlining calorie management, food groups, recipes, calories in common foods and many items of interest.
The girls, in their lectures, stressed many items in order that overweight would never become a problem. Various activities call for more food as more calories are used each hour. A list of various foods was given and three sample menus were easily adapted for family use. A Herb Cottage Cheese dip, a broiled Flank Steak and a Sunshine Souffle were among the recipes that the girls demonstrated to the audience. A very attractive salad plate was made with new ideas for cutting vegetables. Canada's Food Plan is an excellent plan with milk, fruit, vegetables, bread and cereals, meat and fish in the daily menus and provides approximately 1800 calories of plain food. There are no special frills.

At the close the group was given a chance to sample the food which was attractively arranged on small tables.

The River Valley members in attendance were Mrs. Vernon Harry, Mrs. Roy Tucker, Mrs. Percy MacMullen and Mrs. Shirley Tibby.

HERB COTTAGE CHEESE DIP
one cup plain cottage cheese two tbsps. milk
two tbsps. chopped green onion 1 tsp. salt few grains cayenne
two tbsps. finely chopped dill pickle few drops tabasco sauce
Blend in blender or beat with rotary beater the cottage cheese and milk. Combine with remaining ingredients.

Chill. Use as a dip for raw vegetables including carrots, turnip, celery sticks, cucumber, green pepper strips. Ten calories per tablespoon. (This can be used as salad dressing if thinned with milk.)

Tuesday, May 15 - Hastings West District Annual, Westminster United Church, Westless branch - Wallbridge W.I.
An older member, Mrs. Fred McDonnell has passed on. Sympathy is extended to her husband and family.
Mrs. Harry Noblitt, Provincial President, speaking at the Waterloo Officers' Conference, said 142 Branches had attained an increase of 20 per cent in membership. Ontario has 1292 branches.

Toronto's CN Tower

World's tallest

Construction is under way on an 1,805-foot communications and observation tower in downtown Toronto. It will be the tallest self-supporting structure in the world. Being built by CN Tower Limited, a subsidiary of Canadian National Railways, the tower will have a six-storey sky pod more than 1,100 feet above ground containing observation decks, revolving dining room, broadcasting and transmission facilities, and microwave facilities.
Visitors will ride to the sky pod in elevators with glass-faced shafts. The CN Tower, scheduled for completion in 1974, will be located in the 190-acre Metro Centre development. It will be one of the engineering and architectural wonders of the world.

The stars of Nassau's Seaflour Aquarium are the porpoises. Their acts include high jumping, general acrobatics and whistling at the ladies.

Nassau Seaflour Aquarium Attraction for Visitors

NASSAU, Bahamas - An aquarium in the Bahamas might seem like bringing coals to Newcastle.
That's because the surrounding waters constitute one vast aquarium having few equals in the world, and much of the bewildering variety of under water life can be observed a short distance from shore with the aid of snorkels.
But the Nassau Seaflour Aquarium offers a spectacle that would take the snorkeler viewer to encompass And certain dangerous species of under water life, such as sharks, barracudas and moray eels, can be viewed in close proximity and in complete safety.
The star of the aquarium are, however, and always will be the porpoises, those intelligent and vocal denizens of the deep who seem to have a special affinity for humans. They nuzzle up to their trainer like puppy dogs, and perform a variety of tricks for visitors at his urging through the encouragement of a fish or two.
There are giant tanks standing 20 feet high and 35 feet in diameter. In these, coral reefs have been re-constructed to provide natural surroundings for hundreds of exotic fish, including stingrays, needlefish, houndfish, grouper, suckers, starfish, eels and many others sharing quarters with rock crabs, lobsters, sea anemones, sea urchins and green turtles.
The Nassau Seaflour Aquarium is located two miles from the heart of downtown Nassau, and contains a colourful collection of sub-tropical plants and flowers, including hibiscus, bougainvillea, poinsettia and the yellow elder, the national flower of the Bahamas.

A FORUM ABOUT MATURE WOMEN

FEELING SAGGY
Dear Margaret Brookfield:
I'm having my 45th birthday tomorrow and would say that 29 days out of 30, I'm happy. When I do feel depressed, it's probably just my cycle of moods. Although I have no major problems, I have noticed that women show their age much sooner than men. I often find myself brooding over the "turkey neck" and "hog jowls" I'm developing and by the sagging tissue under my eyes. For the past five years, I've tried facial exercises and other gimmicks that promise you the proverbial "mountain of youth," but they do no good. I've also consulted some prominent cosmetic people, but that isn't the answer either. (No husband trouble motivates me and I'm not trying to look 20, but would be happy with a more attractive fortyish face than I have). I've never considered plastic surgery, believing it was only for the Hollywood crowd, but I think I'd be vain and silly enough to have myself tightened at the seams, if they ever got to the price where I could afford it. What do you think?
M.W.

Dear M.W.:
Anyone who subjects himself or herself to regular and careful scrutiny in the mirror after age 40 soon becomes painfully aware of every blemish, crow's foot and pore. But life isn't lived in the mirror. And as we grow older, we come to understand that youthfulness is a mental attitude, almost as much as a physical condition. Those who seem the most youthful—both men and women—are those most actively involved in the time to brood about how they look. Their outside interests are more important to them than their outer covering. You can learn their secret by getting out of your house more and away from your mirror. If you start developing outside interests (such as learning a new language, acquiring a new skill) or start doing more things for others, you might end up doing more for yourself and looking a lot better whether or not you have plastic surgery.

WHEN DOES MENOPAUSE START?
Dear Margaret Brookfield:
At what age does menopause usually start? I had my first menstrual period at age 17, which is much later than the average. And I've heard that if your period starts late, your menopause will begin earlier. Is there any truth to this?

Dear S.C.:
Two decades ago, the average of women reaching the menopause was 45 or 46. Now it's nearer 50; it varies from individual to individual. Doctors say it's a fallacy to believe that the earlier a woman begins to menstruate, the later she will experience menopause. Heredity seems to have some influence: with daughters tending to follow the same patterns as their mothers. Also, some women have a rough time at menopause; others don't. Fortunately, many with disturbing symptoms can now be helped with estrogen replacement, which is prescribed by doctors. This therapy, which often helps restore a woman's hormonal balance at this time, can restore her sense of well-being as well.

Dear Margaret Brookfield:
We have two teen-age boys at our house, who have electric guitars, amplified sound, a hi-fi set, earphones and the works. They bought it with the money they earned summers and after school. Other than feeling the house vibrate at frequent intervals, my husband and I don't have to put up with all that bedlam, since the boys do their listening and practicing downstairs in the basement. But I do worry about what effect all that noise day in and day out is doing to their hearing. When I tell them to turn down the volume, they say I'm being old fashioned. What do you think?
H.W.

Dear H.W.:
Your concern is quite justified. Ear specialists point out that today's youth, who listen to their favorite rock bands full blast on earphones and full-volume speakers, should be cautioned that their hearing can be permanently damaged. One warning symptom, doctors say, is a ringing sensation in the ear afterwards. Another, is a consistent feeling that one's hearing sensitivity is lessened after such listening. The doctors not only suggest that youngsters should turn down the volume but that they also give their ears a five minutes rest at least every half hour when listening with earphones. And the doctors recommend a hearing test for such youngsters twice a year. This testing might be a good idea for your boys to make them aware that too much noise can indeed be a serious matter.

County Council Questions Board

The Hastings County Board of Education will be asked to have representatives appear at least once a year before county council to answer questions from the council body.

This was the decision recently after council concurred in a resolution from the townships of McClure, Wicklow and Buror, asking the provincial government to change its grant formula so that rural municipalities receive a more equitable break in school levies.

The resolution said the present grant system resulted in high mill rates for rural municipalities.

In support of his council's resolution, which is being said the smaller municipalities had been "hit hard" as a result of the grant formula.

To illustrate, he said his municipality's education tax last year was $65.00 while this year it had jumped to $80.00.

And the same story was told by other reeves, who cited 1973 levies of from $6,000 to $12,000 over those of last year.

One northern reeve asked whether anyone had any control over "excess" hiring on the part of school boards.

STIRLING HORTICULTURAL SOCIETY

Come to our "Bring and Buy Plant Sale," located at John's Dairy Store, near Memorial Park, on Saturday, May 19th, commencing at 1 p.m. There might just be something there you would like. Our meeting is Monday, May 21st at St. Paul's United Church hall at 2 p.m. All welcome.

UNIQUE CLUB

The unique Huntingdon Veteran's Club, unique in so much as it may be the only local group of its kind in Canada, has had a very successful year.

Donald McFadden is still our loyal president; William French vice-president; and Reg. Haggerty sec.-treas.

Monies have been raised chiefly through delightful bingos held every two weeks on Tuesday night from October to May at the Ivanhoe Town Hall, with a coffee and biscuit break. Eric Omered manages the games and Don McFadden is the caller.

Monies raised have helped various organizations. We donated $50 to The Easter Seals campaign.

Sick members are remembered in the home and hospital.

We have 11 active members. Meetings are held every Saturday night at the various Veteran's homes where we all partake of delicious repasts after the business program is completed.

A limited-edition commemorative envelope is being offered for sale as part of the Yukon's 75th anniversary celebrations this year. The stamped collectors' items will be taken by canoe from Bennett, B.C. down the Yukon River to Dawson City in August.

Healing Substance: Shrinks Piles

Exclusive healing substance proven to shrink hemorrhoids and repair damaged tissue.

A renowned research institute has found a unique healing substance with the ability to shrink hemorrhoids painlessly. It relieves itching and discomfort in minutes and speeds up healing of the injured, inflamed tissue.

In less than a week, while gently relieving pain, actual reduction (shrinkage) took place.

Most important of all—results were so thorough that the improvement was maintained over a period of many months.

All this was accomplished with a healing substance (Bio-Dyne) which quickly helps heal injured cells and stimulates growth of new tissue.

Now Bio-Dyne is offered in ointment and suppository form called Preparation H. Ask for it at all drug stores. Satisfaction or your money refunded.

Preparation H

He said that the county board recently had hired an assistant for the head of the transportation department.

"There are too many chiefs and not enough Indians," said the reeve, suggesting that one man should be able to look after the approximately 230 buses operated in the county system.

Warden Casey, however, said county council had no control over school board expenditures.

"They are an elected body—they make the rules and we pay," he said.

Tweed Reeve Barbara Allen agreed that board administration costs were top heavy. "We hear of teachers being fired (to cut education cost) but we never hear of cuts in administrative personnel," she said.

Reeve Allen said that what had happened to school board levies were a further indication of the paradox between theory and practice.

"We were told that county school boards would help the smaller municipalities but just exactly the opposite has happened—something has to be done."

Council concurred in the Bangor resolution and also a following motion from Reeve Allen that county council have the director of education and the school board chairman come to council once a year preferably before budget time to answer questions.

She particularly wanted board representation from both the administrative and membership sides "so they can't pass the buck."

Anglican Primate Visits Stirling

Last week Stirling was visited by the Primate of the Anglican Church of Canada, the Most Reverend W.E. Scott of Toronto. The purpose of his visit was to meet with the Anglican clergy of the deanery of Hastings, to share with them his views and opinions about the work of the Church. The topics were wide ranging, from the recent decision of General Synod to allow women to be ordained to the priesthood, to the role of a bishop.

Archbishop Scott does not allow his high office to hide the warm and friendly personality which he has. He prefers to engage directly in conversation with people rather than make long policy speeches. He told the group of an experience which indicates his strong feelings of support for the native peoples of this country. At a rather large dinner a gentleman who was a president of a large company leaned across the table and said to the Primate, "There is something that bothers me about what you do." The Primate enquired what it was. Apparently it was the Indian beaded pectoral cross which the bishop was wearing. He thought the Primate was trying to be a hippie. Rather than become annoyed at the criticism, this business man was asked to stop and think if there might not be another reason why the Primate was wearing the beaded cross.

As it turned out, the Primate admitted that he always wears something made by the native peoples of this country. He indicated that there are 12,000 Eskimos and 60,000 Indians in Canada who look upon him as their primate and wouldn't it be reasonable for them to expect that he would wear something out of their culture.

Following their discussions, the clergy adjourned to the Parish Hall for lunch provided by the ladies of St. John's A.C.W. The Primate was then driven to Belleville for an interview show on Radio CJBQ.

T. Rollins, MPP for Hastings; David Duffin, second owner. The MPP spoke briefly, welcoming the new owners to Stirling and commending them for leaving the metropolitan life to settle in a rural community.

Seek Pupils for Fall Term

An open house was held on Friday, May 18th at St. Paul's United Church by Stirling Co-Operative Nursery School. Many interested parents observed nursery school in action while their children took an active part in the various activities. A number of children were registered for the fall term, while others took the registration forms home. There are still vacancies for children to enroll and registration forms are available at the nursery school. Those who were not able to attend open house, and are interested in enrolling their child, should obtain and fill out a registration form as soon as possible. More information can be obtained by calling 395-2866.

Grand Secretary Is Honored

R.W. Bro. Leroy Heaney of Ottawa, Grand Secretary of the Grand Orange Lodge of Ont. East, attended the annual sessions of the Grand Orange Lodge of Quebec on May 11 and 12.

During the sessions Bro. Heaney was made an Honorary Life Member of that Grand Body. Friends and members of the Grand Lodge congratulate Bro. Heaney on receiving this high and well deserved honor.

Guide News

Our meeting opened on Tuesday night with a rousing game of "hats - no hats." The Hats won the game but the No Hats put up a good struggle.

During our regular opening ceremony the flags were presented by the Scarlet Tanager Patrol and O Canada was sung. At inspection it was discovered that several of the recently presented badges were not yet sewn on. Get that needle and thread busy girls! The report on our Cookie Day showed that two girls had tied for top sales, selling four dozen boxes each. They were Isabel Hoard and Karen Wood. Others were close and probably could also have sold more had we not run out of cookies.

The kit list and health forms for our Weekend Camp coming up May 17, 18 and 19 were distributed. Twenty-four Stirling Guides and four adults will be attending this camp. We are looking forward to "having a ball".

After a half hour of instruction on local knowledge, Kim's Game and Challenge Emblem we enjoyed another campfire planned by two more girls trying for Campfire leader badges - Karen Clarke and Isabel Hoard.

The meeting was closed with the singing of taps. On Friday night and Saturday four girls camped out at Lieut. Clarke's farm to be tested for their Backyard Camper Badge. Despite the buckets of rain that came down on Saturday they successfully cooked and ate their noon meal, broke camp and left to tell everyone "Boy, that was fun."

New Manager From Meaford

Stirling will welcome a new bank manager within the next week or two in the person of George Hughes. He is presently the manager of the Bank of Montreal in Meaford, where he has been for the past seven years.

Hughes succeeds D.C. Dilabough, who assumed management of the Midland Branch two weeks ago, after being in Stirling nearly four years.

Council Minutes

Members all present except Joe Valchar. Newly-appointed Reeve Edward Klompaker and newly-appointed Councillor Maurice Montgomery were duly sworn into office and took the Oath of Allegiance.

Reeve Klompaker spoke briefly, welcoming our new councillor, stating he was very sorry he had had to take the Reeve's chair, due to the resignation of our former Reeve Robert Anderson. He said he would do his best to head Council the same as it had been done in the past, and would do everything to work together with all members of Council.

Councillor Montgomery thanked Council for his appointment back on Council and would work for the best interest of the Village.

Councillors Faulkner and Martin both spoke and welcomed Maurice back on Council. Minutes of the May 7 meeting were approved on motion by Faulkner and Martin.

Mr. MacDonald, from Humpage, Taylor and MacDonald, attended Council and presented each Council member with a copy of the 1972 Financial Statement. He went through the statement very thoroughly with Council, explaining as much as possible to Council, but due to the detailed method of the Department in Toronto has to have the statement made up, he advised all Council members to take the report home and study it very carefully, and if any questions, to get in touch with him and he would answer them.

He also provided Council with a Consolidated Balance Sheet and Statement of Revenue and Expenditures for publishing in the paper or mailing a copy with our tax bills.

Reeve Klompaker thanked Mr. MacDonald for coming down and explaining the Financial Statement to Council.

The Clerk read the following Correspondence:

Ministry of the Environment - re: Waste Disposal Site; Ontario Housing Corporation - re: Minutes of Meeting on Site, May 2, 1973; Carl E. Bateman, County of Hastings - re: (i) 1973 Requisition, (ii) Joint Waste Management Committee; Ministry of Transportation and Communications - re: Advance Subsidy Payment, Clarke T. Rollins and Thomas L. Wells, Minister of Education, re: Bangor, Wicklow and McClure Resolution, The Hon. John White - re: The Ontario Tri-Level Conference, Philips Planning and Engineering - re: CC to Mr. Brian Carney, G.H. Hogle - re: Taxes 1971 and 1970, Ministry of Community and Social Services - re: Senior Citizen Week, Ontario Housing Corporation - re: Operating Costs, Ontario Municipal Board - re: By-Law No. 743-70.

Motion by Martin and Montgomery that the correspondence be received and filed except that which would be brought up later under General business.

Clerk was instructed to reply to the letter from Ontario Housing Corporation and send them a copy of their letter of March 27, 1973.

Reeve Klompaker agreed to contact the Stirling Senior Citizens Club to find out if they had anything planned for Senior Citizen Week beginning June 17, and the Clerk was instructed to have the Proclamation put in the local paper, Wednesday, June 13.

Clerk was instructed to write the Ministry of the Environment, Kingston, explaining the work that has been done at our disposal site and that in Council's opinion it is in real good shape.

It was Council's decision that the letter received from Mr. Hogle be received and filed. Mr. Doug Bolte attended Council and discussed several matters with them, mainly cleaning streets for painting parking lines, planting trees at the Ball Park and the need for a new lawn mower for the cemetery.

DRAW WINNERS - Winners of the first two draws held in conjunction with the Grand Re-Opening of the Stirling's Store were announced last weekend. Mrs. Noreen Sharp, RRS, Stirling, won the cassette tape recorder and Mrs. Vi Scott, RRS, Frankford, won the Davento Space Saver. The draw for the Webcor Television will be held Saturday afternoon.

RE-ELECTED DIRECTOR - Herb Wall, Postmaster in Stirling, was re-elected a director of the Canadian Postmasters' Association, (Ontario Branch) at the annual meeting last weekend in Sudbury. He will represent Ontario at the British Columbia Convention in Vernon, June 8-10 and also at the National Convention in Quebec City in October. He has been a director for four years.

TRAIN-CAR COLLISION - A train-car collision on Tuesday morning resulted in damage to the rear end of a car owned by Dennis Willerton, 28 East Moira St., Belleville. His car was involved with a freight train about 8 a.m. The engineer was Alvin L. Courman, 308 Dufferin St., Belleville. OPP from the Belleville office investigated.

YOUTH CHARGED - Greg Anderson, 194 Church St., Stirling, has been charged with public mischief and being drunk in a public place. The charges arose following an incident at John's Restaurant last week, when the glass in the door was broken. Provincial Police from Belleville investigated and laid the charges.

The new manager has four sons, the youngest of whom is 19 and one of whom is currently employed in the bank's head office in Toronto. By reputation which has preceded him, the new man is active in community affairs, and has played a prominent role in developing the Meaford business climate during his stay there.

Mrs. Ken Gillies, Marmora, spent an evening recently with Mr. and Mrs. Everett Cooke. Mr. and Mrs. Everett Cooke spent the holiday weekend at Red Eagle Camp, C. Hill, with Mr. and Mrs. James McIntosh, Wayne and Bruce.

Honor Former Priest June 1

On Friday, June 1st, the members of St. James the Minor Parish will honor a former parishioner, Rev. Father Bill McGee on the occasion of the 25th anniversary of his ordination to the priesthood.

Father McGee was born in Stirling and attended the local public and high schools. He then enrolled at St. Augustine Seminary in Toronto and later on May 22nd, 1948 was ordained a priest.

Following his ordination Father McGee has served in the following appointments: Cathedral High School in Kingston as a member of the teaching staff and later at Nicholson Catholic College in Belleville in a similar capacity. He was then appointed Parish Priest at Elgin with the neighboring mission of Philippsville. At the present time Father is parish priest at St. John's in Kingston. Holy Mass will be celebrated by Rev. Father McGee at eight o'clock, to be followed by a social evening at the I.O.O.F. hall. All friends of Father McGee are cordially invited.

REEVE RESIGNS

Stirling has a new Reeve in the person of Edward Klompaker, who was appointed to the position last Thursday, following the sudden and unexpected resignation of Robert Anderson, who was in his second term as chief magistrate of the Village.

Anderson resigned at a special meeting of Council for health reasons and also business pressures. He asked that the action be effective immediately and council proceed to fill his office and also appoint a councillor to bring the membership to full strength.

Upon being elected Reeve, Klompaker resigned as deputy reeve and council then appointed former councillor Maurice Montgomery to fill out the unexpired term.

There has been no decision reached yet on whether a new deputy reeve needs to be appointed or not.

Senior Citizens hold meeting

Forty-two Senior Citizens, happily growing older together, enjoyed a pot luck dinner on Thursday. Belts were let out and buttons blown - so good was the variety of eats. Eleven tables of euchre were in play. Pearl McGee and Mina Smith tied for first lady but Pearl won the draw. Mary Cooke had to change her sex to cope the high man and Ernie Munro settled for low. There were two scores of 13 to zero, so you see there were a couple of skunks around. Identity of the highly scented losers is omitted.

We have chartered a bus for Kingston on June 27th. The bus holds 47 and already 38 seats have been sold. Get your name in if you want to go. Call Lil Heasman. Members have priority but if any are left over they will be sold to non members. Members $2.00, non members $3.00. Take your own noon day lunch and we will stop on the way home for a dinner, at some good eating place. Time of departure is about 9:30 a.m. Check to be sure.

IN THE AIR

LEGION NOTES

A number of members of Stirling Legion are attending the Provincial Convention of the Ontario Command being held this week in Sault Ste. Marie, Ont. Headed by Branch President Stan Kosmack, and

1st Vice-President Carl Cooke, who are the official voting delegates, the Legion contingent is composed of Comrades Bert Bastedo, Weiger De Jong, Ray Tanner, Blake Faulkner, Doug Patterson and

Bob Cooke

A full report of the Provincial Convention will be forthcoming in future Legion Notes. One important piece of legislation under consideration is a proposal to admit the sons and daughters of qualified veterans as Associate Members. If this is approved, the Legion will be able to accept applications from sons and daughters of veterans. It is expected that if approved at the Provincial level, the final choice of acceptance will rest with each individual Legion Branch.

The Legion deeply regrets having to cancel their annual Fireworks display which has been held on Victoria Day Holiday for many years. New legislation has made it mandatory for the companies selling fireworks to sell only to groups who have a qualified person to supervise the show. Courses were offered in Ottawa and Hamilton this April, however, the Legion was only notified four days in advance of the courses, and therefore it was virtually impossible to arrange for someone to attend and be certified. The Legion does not quarrel with the safety aspect, however, it is concerned that only four days' notice was given.

Branch President Stan Kosmack has announced that the last General Meeting prior to summer adjournment will be held on Tuesday, June 5, at the Legion Hall, commencing at 6 p.m. A pot Luck Supper will be held at 7 p.m. All Branch members and district veterans are urged to attend this important meeting. During the months of July and August, the Executive Committee will be empowered to transact business on behalf of the Branch. The meeting is also the first general meeting for the newly-elected President, Stan Kosmack. The Legion hopes that a good attendance will show Stan his comrades are behind him.

At the Legion Executive meeting last Tuesday evening, plans were made to hold a special Weiner and Beans Social event at the Legion Hall on Saturday, May 26, starting at 9 p.m. Music for dancing will be provided and all members are invited to attend.

and. A small charge of $1.00 per person has been set to cover expenses.

President Kosmack has also announced that the next Executive Meeting will be held on Tuesday, June 19 at 8 p.m. in the Legion Hall.

At the recent executive meeting several committee reports were received. Comrade Vic Jackett reported that Branch membership was at an all-time high of 171 and he expected several more new members in the near future. Any veteran wishing more information should contact Comrade Jackett. A brief sports report by Comrade Bastedo resulted in a discussion directed at setting up a horse-shoe court on the east end of the Legion property. More on this later.

The Legion will hold a special church parade to St. John's Anglican Church on Sunday, June 10. This will be in connection with the anniversary of D-Day. All branch members are urged to make a note of this date and be on hand. The Legion will fall in at Tanner's Service Station at 11 a.m. and parade to St. John's.

By-Law No-772-73

ENTITLED A BY-LAW TO PROHIBIT LOITERING IN A PUBLIC PLACE

Whereas Section 242, Chapter 284, RSO 1970 provides for Councils to pass such a By-Law, and make regulations for the Health, Safety, Morality and Welfare of the Inhabitants of the Municipality.

Now therefore, the Municipal Council of the Village of Stirling enacts as follows:

1. That no person shall lounge, loaf, loiter or stand as an idler on any Public sidewalk or Street or Highway or in any Public Place as defined by Section 130(B) of the Criminal Code as amended and as the same may be amended from time to time, so as to obstruct the due and proper use thereof.

2. Any person who contravenes the provisions of the By-Law is liable to a fine of not less than Ten Dollars ($10.00) and not more than Three Hundred Dollars ($300.00) exclusive of costs, and shall be recoverable under the Summary Convictions Act.

3. This By-Law shall come into force and take effect immediately upon passing.

Enacted and passed this 7 day of May, 1973, Signed, Sealed and Numbered By-Law 772-73.

INATTENTIVE DRIVING:

Accident facts prove that many traffic deaths and injuries are the result of inattention on the part of drivers concerned. The Ontario Ministry of Transportation and Communications urge all drivers to watch out for moments of inattention while driving. Develop the habit of always giving driving the full attention it requires for maximum safety.

IMPROPER PASSING:

Motorists!! If, for any reason, you decide to pass the car ahead when you are not quite sure you can do it -- remember you are risking human life. Never pass other vehicles when climbing hills, on curves, when approaching bridges, railway crossings or intersections. Never attempt to pass another vehicle unless you are absolutely sure you can do it safely. For a safe passing rule, remember "If in doubt, DON'T."

TICKLE BOX by Ted Trogon

"And bless all my friends... except Bennie Thompson and Bruce Duval and Rosalie Hendricks and Bobby Vance..."

Do You Remember?
25 Years Ago

On Sunday, May 16th, 1948, the Rev. C.C. Brazill resigned the Parish of Stirling and Frankford to become effective on September 1st. Mr. Brazill has been Rector of the Parish for the past 5 years, coming here from Adolphustown, where he served seven and a half years.

One of the highlights of Rev. Brazill's ministry was the banquet at which the last mortgage on the Church property at St. John's was burned, leaving this congregation entirely free of debt.

Mrs. Robert Luery, John St., entertained a number of friends last night at a miscellaneous shower in honor of Miss Iris Bastido, who marriage takes place this month. During the evening the bride-to-be was presented with a variety of beautiful and useful gifts for which she expressed her sincere thanks. Dainty refreshments were served by the hostess, assisted by Mrs. Earl Luery, Mrs. Douglas Patterson and Mrs. Russell West.

Dr. Donald Scott and Mr. Munro Scott, sons of Rev. and Mrs. W.J. Scott of Lindsay, were guests of Dr. and Mrs. W. Cornett on Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Milford Wrightman and sons spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. A. Farrar, Trenton.

Seventeen from Mount Pleasant journeyed to Foxboro Orange Hall on Wednesday evening, May 12th, and attended a birthday party for Mr. Edward Montgomery. They were Mr. and Mrs. Percy MacMullen, Mr. Claude Sharp, Mr. and Mrs. Orno Sharp and Ray, Mr. and Mrs. Malcolm Sharp and Kalvin, Mrs. Will Johnston, Mr. Angus Johnston and Miss Jessie Johnston, Mrs. James Sharpe, Mrs. Marguerite McMullen, Mr. and Mrs. Raymond McConnell and Miss Betty McConnell.

Mr. Harold Dellor has put up a new cement silo.

(By Mrs. Lindsay Tanner)
Mr. and Mrs. Murney Ray of Wellington were supper guests of Mrs. Mabel Ray and Gwen on Sunday.

Mrs. Anne Tanner of Belleville and Miss Lela Bateman of Toronto spent the weekend with their mother, Mrs. Myrtle Vance.

Mr. and Mrs. Ed Colleen accompanied Mr. and Mrs. Roy Finch and girls of Rylstone to Peterborough on Sunday and were tea hour guests of Mr. and Mrs. John Myall. They also attended the evening Confirmation Service in St. John's Church when Kimberley Myall was confirmed.

Mr. and Mrs. Art Evans of Chelmsford spent the weekend with their parents Mr. and Mrs. Tom Clements.

Mr. and Mrs. Lorne Reid and Gary of Holloway and Mrs. Edith Edwards and Janice of Stirling spent Sunday evening with Miss Edna Tanner, Clare and George.

Mrs. Mabel Ray is spending a few days with Mr. and Mrs. Bill Morton of Oakville.

Sunday guests of Mr. and Mrs. Jim York were Mr. and Mrs. Jim York and family, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Sladeczek and Paula of Oshawa, Mr. and Mrs. Victor York and daughter of Belleville, Mr. and Mrs. Roger York of Madoc, Mrs. Ken Crawford and Susan and Mr. Roy Collins of Oshawa.

Mr. and Mrs. Jim York and Mr. and Mrs. Roger York were guests at the Ray-Watson wedding in the Anglican Church in Madoc on May 12.

Why The Haste?

Another example of inefficient Provincial government bureaucracy came earlier this year, and doubtless many thousands of people suffered the loss of an annual event as a result. We refer to the change in regulations in regard to fireworks demonstrations, normally held this past Monday, known as Victoria Day, officially, and "firecracker day" to most.

The change brought into effect with little public notice, was that in order to hold such events, they had to be supervised by a licensed official (by the province, naturally), and without evidence of such supervision, the fireworks manufacturers were prohibited from selling to the customer.

The local Legion officials made every effort to try and provide fireworks this year, in the belief that due to the lateness of the changes and the practical unavailability of the courses (the closest here was Ottawa) it might be permitted to sponsor an event this year, in the light of many years' experience, and endorsement by local fire department officials.

Such, unfortunately was not the case.

There is merit in the philosophy behind the supervision requirement. It is intended to try and prevent such occurrences as last year where a person was killed in Toronto at a demonstration. Numerous other people have been hurt, in varying degrees of seriousness, participating in such events. Human carelessness being what it is, then drastic action is needed. This is not the point in question.

We seriously doubt the government decided on this course of action in one or two days, or even weeks, knowing how long it usually takes to get anything legislated. Why it had to be announced with so little notice before the event is the point at issue. Local Legion officials indicated the notice was received Tuesday, and the only available course was Saturday of the same week. It is also understood that Belleville only received a week's notice, but with a full time Fire Department, were fortunately able to get two men away to the course. Such things are not feasible in smaller communities, where the co-operation of employers, etc. is involved to get personnel free to attend.

This is not the first time government action has been taken with short notice, and perhaps on occasion there is justification. There appears to be none in this case. We hope those elected by the majority to govern, will consider the electorate a little more when contemplating hasty actions in future, and what ramifications it might have in communities without the multi-million dollar resources of government agencies to implement new requirements.

NATURE OF THINGS
A frog who has shed his skin doesn't leave it lying behind. He eats it.

It seems a shame that creatures so conscientious about litter and pollution should be so threatened by pollution. But they are.

Frogs and the other amphibians of Ontario are efficient and avid killers of insects—particularly those bugs we regard as pests—mosquitoes, etc. The good turn they do us in controlling these pests makes them vulnerable. They accumulate great quantities of poisonous insecticides.

While amphibians live a great part of their lives in water they never drink it. Water is absorbed through their skins. This leaves them wide open to poison from pesticides and water pollution.

In addition, man the developer is moving in and destroying the marshy ground that has been their habitat for 340 million years.

That's right—340 million years.

The frog, the toad, the salamander and their amphibious cousins were the first creatures to venture out of the seas, lakes and rivers to build a life on the land.

Over those millions of years, they've had their enemies—snakes, fish, mammals. But only in the past century has one natural enemy gained the dominance over land and sea that allows him to threaten the very existence of these ancient creatures.

It's taken a long time, but we've finally made it.

It's an achievement of sorts. But it's an offhand achievement—a byproduct of the way we live rather than a concerted extermination effort. The side effects of human life styles have a much greater impact on endangering species than hunting, for example. Yet when we are stirred to action in the cause of a threatened species, we attack hunting.

It's a simpler target and we can make the hunter the scapegoat for all our sins. That way, we can continue exploiting and polluting the land, the water and the air with a clear conscience.

It's a simpler target and we can make the hunter the scapegoat for all our sins. That way, we can continue exploiting and polluting the land, the water and the air with a clear conscience.

65 Years Ago

The farmers in this vicinity (Harold) are going in extensively for the cultivation of fruit trees, some setting out as many as 1000 trees.

Mrs. Fair has returned from her visit to Bayside.

Miss Lena Reid is spending a week as the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. B. Hogle, Marmora.

Mr. Jonathan Danford of Stirling spent Sunday with friends here prior to his departure for Colorado.

Still Stirling grows! Slowly, perhaps, but surely. Within a few years nearly 20 souls will be added to our population by the removal from Deseronto of three families. While we have only limited opportunities for expansion there is at the present time room for a few good steady laborers who are willing to do any kind of work that offers, either in the village or on neighboring farms. We welcome the newcomers and hope they may prove worthy additions to our attractive village.

Mr. and Mrs. S.J. Roy, agent G.T.R. at Ingersoll, were visiting his parents here for a few days this week, and then left for a trip to Chicago, San Francisco and other cities in the west. They intend spending a month visiting friends and relatives before returning to their home in Ingersoll.

The Wellman's Corners Rifle Association will hold their first shoot on May 25th at 9 a.m. All members are requested to pay subscription before firing. T.H. Woolton, Captain.

The Bowmanville Statesman pays us the following compliment: "The Stirling News-Argus is one of the clean, well-printed newsweeklies of Hastings county. The paper is a credit to Stirling."

Miss M. Jamieson of Toronto, who labored in Central India for some years, will tell of her work in that land in St. Andrew's church on Sunday night.

In Appreciation

We wish to extend our sincere appreciation to the Rawdon Township Fire Department and Chief Mac Mason, and the Stirling Fire Department and Chief Graham Mouck for their prompt response to the fire call at Bert Jones Bus Repair Shop on May 8.

We also wish to thank Don Williams and Allan Wells for their generous offer of employing the full time staff until such time as our business is operational again.

We further wish to thank all the local residents who expressed their concern at our loss, and offers of assistance that were made.

We also want to say thanks to Robert Hulin for the use of his Stirling Commercial Printing Office Facilities.

St. James CWL

On May 10th Mr. and Mrs. Stan Meeks opened their home for the regular monthly meeting of St. James C.W.L. Rev. McGarvey celebrated mass, assisted by six members. With Mrs. Stan Meeks presiding, all present recited the League Prayer. Following were roll call and minutes of the previous meeting. Read by Mrs. John Kerby. The treasurer, Mrs. John Doran, also read her report.

An invitation was received from St. Paul's C.W.L. to their forthcoming Christmas Fiesta. A list will be compiled for flowers to be placed in the church during the summer months. Livestock sale dates have been booked for next year. A donation to the Hope Fund will be sent. The Church will be cleaned the last week in May.

Rev. McGarvey highlighted Mrs. Breen O'Connor's recent talk at Batavia, in which she stressed the importance of keeping the C.W.L. alive. She also urged members to do all they could to stop the government liberalising the abortion laws.

Following closing prayers, Rev. McGarvey showed some slides of his recent Mediterranean cruise.

A social half hour followed with lunch being served by Mrs. Meeks, assisted by Miss Alice O'Donnell.

Healing Substance: Shrinks Piles

Exclusive healing substance proven to shrink hemorrhoids and repair damaged tissue.

A renowned research institute has found a unique healing substance with the ability to shrink hemorrhoids painlessly. It relieves itching and discomfort in minutes and speeds up healing of the injured, inflamed tissue.

In case after case, while gently relieving pain, actual reduction (shrinkage) took place.

Most important of all—results were so thorough that this improvement was maintained over a period of many months.

All this was accomplished with a healing substance (Bio-Dyne) which quickly helps heal injured cells and stimulates growth of new tissue.

Now Bio-Dyne is offered in ointment and suppository form called Preparation H. Ask for it at all drug stores. Satisfaction or your money refunded.

The victim of an epileptic attack is completely unconscious from an instant before the onset of his attack. St. John Ambulance warns that the custom of forcing a bit between the teeth to prevent tongue injury is unnecessary and dangerous, often resulting in broken teeth or a fractured jaw. The only useful measure is to protect the victim from injury caused by striking limbs or head against a hard surface.

REBEKAHS HOLD MAY TEA

Members of the Laurel Rebekah Lodge No. 211 held their annual Maytime tea Thursday evening. Present at the tea table were Irene Hogle, convenor; Betty Johnson, Vice-Grand; Ruby Danford, Madoc Pourer; Marjorie Stapley, Noble Grand; Mae Clarke, convenor; and Doreen Ackers, convenor.

Rebekah Lodge Holds Bake Sale

Upon entering the Banquet Hall of the I.O.O.F. Temple, Stirling, each guest was graciously welcomed by the Noble Grand, Sister Marjorie Stapley and Vice Grand, Sister Betty Johnson, of Laurel Rebekah Lodge No. 211 on the occasion of their Annual Coffee Party and Bake Sale. The Hall, looking bright and gay with pink and purple streamers, bowls of tulips and various colored paper rosettes under the supervision of Sister Madeline Walker PNG and her Committee, was a real bee-hive of activity. Sisters Gladys Sine PNG and Gena Spry PNG were kept busy at the entrance door.

The Tea-Room, under the guidance of Sister Doreen Ackers was busy all evening. The tables were attractive with their various colored tea-cloths. Vases of daisies added to the attraction of the individual tables. The Tea-Table was gay with a floral centre of red and yellow tulips. Yellow candles glowed while Sisters Anne Haagsma of Belleville, Ruby Danford of Madoc, Estella Adams of Campbellford and Eva Farrell, District Deputy President elect of Thomasburg, poured tea. Sister Mae Clarke and her Committee were kept busy in the kitchen all evening arranging plates of delicious sandwiches and fancy cookies.

BAKE TABLE
The Home Baking Table, under the direction of Sister Irene Hogle PNG and her Committee, looked deliciously tempting with a large assortment of pies, cakes, tarts, candy, home made rolls and bread. This table was a really busy one for the whole evening.

Sister Ruby Tompkins and Ethel Duffin PNG were busy all evening selling tickets on three hampers of groceries. These were won by Mrs. Vera Howes of Stirling, Sisters Alice Hoard and Ivah Philp. Sister Marion Heath PNG and Olive Whitehead PNG were in charge of a hand Crocheted Shawl Draw and this won by Mrs. Mary Wood of Campbellford.

The Convenors, Sisters Marjorie Stapley, NG, Mae Clarke, Doreen Ackers and Irene Hogle PNG wish to thank all who attended, especially the members who donated - making the evening one long to be remembered. Many of the out of town visitors were from Belleville, Thomasburg, Madoc, Campbellford, Marmora and Tweed.

DOJARS & GOOD SENSE

by WILLIAM J. MARTIN

Auto Financial Services

There's no doubt about it. We live in a credit society.

In the U.S., consumer credit now stands at more than $140 billion, compared with about $6 billion in 1945. In Canada, the total is over $12 billion.

Automobile loans account for some 30% of this debt with personal loans next and then charge accounts, home repair loans, etc.

Credit has become necessary to today's life style, and many regard it as a right rather than a privilege. Is credit spending too high? Should curbs be put on credit spending? No, say the experts. In fact, a further expansion of credit is regarded as the best course.

The Canadian Bankers Association has generally helped speed up the prosperity of the business system and has improved the standard of living. It adds that potential future growth of consumer credit should not be viewed with alarm and should not be curbed.

In the U.S., the National Commission of Consumer Finance agrees that credit should be made more available.

As the use of consumer credit increases, it's up to all of us to learn how to use credit wisely so that it can continue to serve us well.

Cemetery Committee agreed to purchase a new lawn mower. It was Council's decision to apply for an additional Roads and Streets subsidy for construction in the amount of $3000.00 with a 50 per cent rate, we would receive $1500.00.

Reeve Klompemaker revised the Standing and Special Committees for the balance of 1973 due to Reeve Anderson's resignation.

Motion by Faulkner and Martin that the Village purchase a new clock and donate it to the Senior Citizen's Common Room.

The purchase of trees for the Ball Park to be left with the Recreation Committee.

It was Council's decision to raise the pay to the Village employee looking after the Community Hall or Theatre from $2.00 to $5.00.

Several matters were discussed at length, (1) Councillor Martin reported on the Cemetery Meeting held and Councillor Valchar and Doug Bolte had attended in Belleville, stating they had learned a great deal about the operations of a Cemetery. (2) Councillor Martin also asked for some information on the pay period used in the Village, pointing out that in a four week month it would work out very well, but not so good with a five week month; he suggested that employees be paid on a straight two week basis. It was Council's decision that no change be made in the method of pay.

Motion by Faulkner and Montgomery that the following accounts be paid: General - Wells Ford Sales $48.33; Treasurer, City of Belleville $13.85; Stirling News-Argus $44.11; PL Building Centre $15.12; Township of Rawdon $54.50; Art's Signs $15.00; Bell Canada Office $33.73; Fire $8.66; Mark Tripp Ltd. (Community Hall) $41.67; Wells Ford (Cemetery) $23.35.

Council duly adjourned to meet again Monday, June 4 at 7 p.m.

Legion Zone Has Unique Asset

Distinctive Zone Commander's Chain of Office Locally Made

Ed. Note: The following writup was prepared by members of Branch 280, Royal Canadian Legion, Mohawk Reserve, Deseronto. It describes the distinctive chain of office presented to the late Earl Brant on his election as Zone Commander.

This chain of office is being donated to Zone F.3, Royal Canadian Legion by the Branch 280 in honor of our brother and our new Zone Commander, Earl J. Brant, the first Indian in Ontario to hold this position. (Brant was killed in an auto accident in 1972).

The design is patterned after the teachings of the Deganawidah, a Huron by birth and a Mohawk by adoption. He gave to the world the great Peace law. He was one of the world's greatest organizers. He formed the first League of Nations at Owanadaga (now Syracuse, New York) in the fifteenth century. It was here that he was able to unite five warring distinct nations into a union cemented by such powerful sanctions of law, custom and religion as to serve to make it all but indestructible. About the year 1715 the Tuscarora tribe was admitted to make the Six Nations, comprising Mohawks, Cayugas, Oneidas, Senecas, Onondagas and Tuscaroras. He had them bury their hatchets under the Tree of Peace, (white pine). The white pine was chosen as it was the tallest in the forest, and closest to the Great Spirit. The four white roots shown were believed to reach to the four corners of the earth and anyone outside the Five Nations wishing to trace these roots to their source could also find shelter beneath this tree.

The bear, wolf and turtle are the three clans of the Mohawks tribe. One of the constitution's best devices for knitting the nations together was the clan system. The relationship between members of a given clan was as binding as that of family, yet these clans were inter-tribal. So strictly was this clan family relationship observed that a man might not marry within his own clan. Inter-tribal clans meant international goodwill, the drawing together of distant peoples not by vague phrases about human brotherhood but by actual ties that touched the personal life.

Deganawidah instructed his chiefs to let no evil find lodging in their minds, to regard courage, patience and honesty as the virtues most requisite to their responsibilities and he urged them to think not so much of the present advantages as of the future welfare of their people.

So it is our hope that the present wearer and his successors may also follow these teachings and that Zone F.3 will acquire a similar record to peace and harmony as has been enjoyed by the Six Nations for the last 500 years.

BERT BASTEDO

Bert Bastedo Active Legionaire

Bert Bastedo of Stirling has had the honor of being the second man to wear the unique chain of office for the Zone Commander, which is described in the accompanying story. He succeeded the late Earl Brant as zone commander. Jim Coulton of Coneseon takes over the office this year.

The area covered in Zone F3 includes Bancroft, Coe Hill, Marmora, Madoc, Tweed, Stirling, Belleville, Deseronto, Coneseon, Wellington and Picton.

Bert was deputy zone commander 1968-9; president of the local Branch 228 in 1959-60 and has been secretary of the Stirling branch since 1950, with the exception of the two years he was president.

He has been convener of the Legion-sponsored Novice and Pee Wee Hockey House Leagues since 1955 and was the OMHA convener for Eastern Ontario Pee Wee Division 1960-66. He coached the local Pee Wee all-star team from 1960-1971.

In addition to his Legion work, he is a member and past president of the Stirling Recreation Council, and also holds the same status in the Stirling Minor Hockey Association.

News-Argus Notebook

WINS TELEVISION - Mrs. Patsy Larmer, 35 James Street, Stirling, won the Webcor Television in the final draw connected with Stedman's Grand Re-opening. The draw was made Saturday afternoon by Reeve Edward Klompfiker.

LOSERS 19 LAMBS - Burton Morton, a farmer at R.R. 5, Stirling, lost 19 lambs and had seven more wounded by dogs earlier this month. Ed Colden, the Township Evaluator and also officials from the Department of Lands and Forests are investigating. The day of the incident, Mr. Morton shot at a police dog he saw running on his property.

ESTABLISH FIRE CAUSE - Further investigation of the fire at Bert Jones Bus Body Shop has revealed that the cause was internal combustion. This was caused by a chemical combination in a pile of cloths used in connection with the painting work. The investigation was conducted by the Fire Adjutor from Belleville and a representative from the Ontario Fire Marshal's office.

EXCHANGE PULPITS - The ministers from the Presbyterian Churches in Picton and Stirling exchanged pulpits Sunday, the occasion being the anniversary services at Picton and Deseronto, where the Rev. Roy A. Taylor was the guest speaker. The Rev. Robert Jones, moderator of Kingston Presbytery, conducted the services at Stirling and West Huntingdon.

MASONIC SERVICE - The Annual Divine Service of Stirling Lodge 69, AF and AM will be held Sunday at St. Andrews Presbyterian Church, Stirling. Members are asked to meet at the Masonic Temple at 10:30 a.m. for parade to the church for 11:00 a.m. service.

NURSERY SCHOOL MEETING - The final general meeting of the Stirling Co-Operative Nursery School for this school year will be held Thursday evening at St. Paul's United Church at 8 p.m. Parents of children will receive the evaluation reports at this meeting. Plans will also be discussed for the 1973-74 operation.

Faith Unit of St. Paul's United Church met at the church on Tuesday, May 15, with an attendance of 23. The President, Mrs. Carman Fitchett, opened the meeting with a Meditation, hymn - "Jesus the Very Thought of Thee," and prayer. The secretary's report was read and approved. Treasurer reported $74.00 envelope givings for April. Mrs. Ed. Warren and Mrs. Carl Clancy contributed to the Birthday Barrel. Reports of Bazaar sewing meetings, cook books, and supply bags to be packed May 23rd were given. A poem on "Mothers" closed this portion of the meeting.

Mrs. Harry Waite was in charge of the Worship Service. The theme was "The Gospel Address." Hymns, Bible readings and readings pertaining to the theme were given. Mrs. H. Philip and Mrs. G. Heasman gathered the offering which was dedicated by Mrs. Waite.

Mrs. Ray Rose was in charge of our program, "A film on India." We learned that dancing has always been a part of India's religion and culture. Their costumes are very colorful and they dance with such rhythm and grace. Today there are 40 million Christians in India and 1000 Doctors have clinics set up for different denominations. Seventy-three per cent of the population depend on agriculture as a means of living. Doctors have clinics set up for immunization of children, and half the children born in villages die before their fifth birthday. Food is also supplied to supplement the protein their diet lacks.

A discussion period and solving a cross-word puzzle on India was enjoyed by all. Lunch was served and a vote of thanks to all who took part in the meeting was given by Mrs. Morley Ayhart.

A RACE FOR FIRST BASE

Spring Brook Bantam softball player Cliff Reid races for first base during an exhibition game last week while first baseman Jeff Farrell of the Stirling team anxiously stretches for the ball. The Stirling Midget softball team will meet Trenton's Wednesday night at the local softball field at 8:15 p.m.

Hastings West District Annual

The 72nd Annual meeting of the Hastings West District Women's Institutes was held in Westminster United Church on May 15th with 80 ladies in attendance. The president, Mrs. Roy Tucker presided and welcomed the group.

Mrs. Tom Patrick introduced the guests: Mrs. Clifford Barber, Provincial Board Director; Miss Kate Ann Wahl, Home Economist; Mrs. Robert Weber, Sec. Treas. Officers Conference; and Mrs. Gordon Macklin, Area President.

Mrs. Gordon Wilman read the minutes and gave the financial statement. The roll call of branches was answered with a few thoughts on the theme, "The secret of happiness is...". Miss Marybeth Burkitt sang "happiness". The president gave her report and her thoughts on the theme. Mrs. Goldie McInroy led in community singing with Mrs. Robert Burkitt at the piano. Mrs. C. Barber gave the highlights of the spring board meeting held recently in Toronto. The course on Ontario Fruit was described by Mrs. William Slavin. Mrs. Grenville Sine reported on the short course, "The Bedroom and the Bath."

The Wallbridge ladies served a delicious salad luncheon. Mrs. G. Macklin, Area Pres., spoke briefly reminding all of the Area Convention to be held in Peterborough on October 23 and 24. Mrs. Gerald Irvine told of the work done on "Tweedsmuir Histories in the district in the past year. There will be a Tweedsmuir workshop held in Stirling with Mrs. R.C. Walker, Provincial Curator, in charge. Any one is welcome on June 15th, 9:30 a.m. to 4 p.m. Please bring a box lunch, coffee will be provided.

Reports of Standing Committees were given as follows: Agriculture and Canadian Industries - Mrs. Goldie McInroy; Citizenship and World Affairs - Mrs. Roswell Reid; Education and Cultural Activities - Mrs. Harold Regensburg, R.R. 5, Belleville; Family and Consumer Affairs - Mrs. Ivan Clare; Resolutions - Mrs. Percy MacMullen. Many interesting programs were enjoyed during the year.

Mrs. George Grills conducted the Pennies for Friendship ceremony when $130.00 was donated from the eight branches. This money goes to further the work in foreign countries. Mrs. Vernon Harry presented the Public Relations report. A total of $3,396.50 had been spent on health, educational, community and other W.I. projects.

Miss Kate Ann Wahl gave an account of her work as Home Economist in Hastings County. There are 31 4-H clubs in the county with 240 girls completing the spring project.

Guest speaker, Mrs. Robert Weber of Bloomingdale brought a very inspiring message taking the letters of "Women's Institute" one by one with special meaning for each. She stated that the Mary Stewart Collect was a good motto to live by. What you share will multiply; what you hold to yourself will diminish.

Mrs. Goldie McInroy sang a solo, "They all call it Canada." Mrs. Roswell Reid gave a few ideas from the Officers Conference at Waterloo. Mrs. Clifford Barber conducted the election and installation of officers: past president - Mrs. Roy Tucker, Stirling; president - Mrs. H. Ketcheson, R.R. 2, Frankford; 1st vice-pres. - Mrs. Edison Sine, R.R. 2, Frankford; 2nd vice-pres. - Mrs. Ivan Clare, R.R. 1, Foxboro; secretary treasurer - Mrs. Gordon Wilman, R.R. 5, Belleville.

Convenors of Standing Committees are as follows: Agriculture and Canadian Industries - Mrs. Goldie McInroy, R.R. 2, Stirling; Citizenship and World Affairs - Mrs. Roswell Reid, R.R. 4, Stirling; Education and Cultural Activities - Mrs. Harold Regensburg, R.R. 5, Belleville; Family and Consumer Affairs - Mrs. Lorne Reid, R.R. 4, Stirling; Resolutions - Mrs. Howard Richards, R.R. 1, Frankford.

Mrs. Hudson Ketcheson thanked the retiring president, Mrs. Roy Tucker for her work during her two years in office and presented her with an Institute cup and saucer on behalf of the District.

STIRLING POPULATION EXPLOSION

Two Canada Geese who have been inhabitants of the village lagoon since early April now have seven more stay around a little longer. Seven goslings were discovered this week at the lagoon with the protective parents standing guard near by. The two geese remained at the lagoon in April after the rest of the flock continued its northward flight. A county game warden discovered the nest in the far corner of the lagoon later last month. The geese and family are expected to stay for another two months. Local residents are reminded that the lagoon is posted and there are heavy fines for molesting them.

Presbyterian UCW Training Session

The executive of the Belleville Presbyterian U.C.W. held a Leadership Training Day at College Hill United Church, Belleville recently. In addition to the Presbyterian Officers the President, Program Chairman and Unit Leaders from each local were invited to attend. Miss Helen Sexsmith, president of Belleville Presbyterian, welcomed everyone and a very meaningful worship service on God's Gifts, was led by Mrs. G. Williams. Marmora Miss Sexsmith convened the meeting and the remainder of the morning session was devoted to regular business and reports. Mrs. B. Stenson, Belleville announced that the Presbyterian Annual Meeting will be held at Holloway United Church, Belleville on January 24, 1974. A very interesting and informative report on Supply and Welfare was given by Mrs. J. Bush, Frankford. She explained some of the many projects that the U.C.W. help with, stressing particular areas of need and asking for help from all the locals. Mrs. R. Beaton, Trenton spoke on the Key '73 Workshop that was held recently in Belleville. Mrs. J. Payton, Trenton gave a very interesting report on the Bay of Quinte Conference that was held in Oshawa and Mrs. S. Bates, Flinton spoke on the Stewardship Seminar that she and Miss Sexsmith had attended in Toronto. Following a very enjoyable singsong led by Mrs. H. Harrison, Plainfield, plans were made for Regional Fall Rallies.

During October and early November rallies will be held in the regions of Hastings Centre, Hastings South, Lennox and Addington, Prince Edward East and Prince Edward West. A delicious lunch was served by the ladies from College Hill United Church and a literature display was set up by Mrs. Huycke for viewing during the lunch hour.

AFTERNOON SESSION
The afternoon session was convened by Mrs. B. Stenson, Belleville and she was assisted by Mrs. S. Bates, Portfolio Secretary of Stewardship and Vocation; Mrs. J. Cullen, Chairman of Program; and Mrs. G. Huycke, Portfolio Secretary of Communications. Mrs. Stenson spoke on programming and stressed the importance of planning in advance she distributed some literature on programs and suggested reference material

NEWLY-ORDAINED MINISTER

Gerald Robert Danford, formerly of Spring Brook, was ordained as a minister of the United Church at the recent Bay of Quinte Conference at Kingston. He will assume duties at the Warsaw Pastoral Charge in Peterborough Presbytery, July 1. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Walter A. Danford, and received his B.A. in sociology and religious studies from Waterloo Lutheran University in 1970 and graduated from Queen's University with a B.D. last week. He is married with one daughter.

that is available. She expressed a willingness to visit any of the locals and assist in Leadership Training programs. Cullen referred to the two year study, "Mission Today" that will be available soon. Mrs. Bates asked about people from the Presbytery who are active in missionary work and about young people who intend to become full time servants of the Church. The need to encourage and assist young people in choosing Christian work as a vocation was emphasized. Thoughts on Stewardship of Time, Talents and Money were discussed and an interesting skit on caring and sharing called, "Karen, Daren and Sharon" was presented. Singing was once again led by Mrs. H. Harrison and Mrs. Huycke displayed and spoke about interesting and helpful literature that is available. The president, Miss Sexsmith called on Mrs. H. Harrison, Plainfield, to close the meeting with a prayer.

Pembroke Minister President

The Rev. Edward Horton of Pembroke is the new president of the Bay of Quinte Conference of the United Church of Canada, succeeding the Rev. John Smith of Whitby. Mr. Horton was inducted on the final day of the conference's 49th annual session in McArthur Hall, Kingston.

Victorious over two other candidates, the Rev. George

Richardson of Perth is president-designate, and will assume office at the close of the 50th conference in 1974. The other candidates were the Rev. Ray Milley of Kingston, and the Rev. James Burn of Port Hope.

Speaking to the conference's opening day sessions, the Moderator, the Rt. Rev. N. Bruce McLeod said that while care must be taken in closing small churches which might become the core of an urban expansion, to keep these open merely out of sentiment is to turn them into "denominational cages". Taking "joy" as his cue, the Moderator combined his crisp sense of humor and musical talent to lead in a song fest.

He said he did not see the United Church as having a special mission to convert the Jews to Christianity, since "Jesus was a Jew all his life. I go out to share the good news, but it is God who converts people," he said.

CHALLENGE
The Rev. Rex Dolan of Hamilton challenged the church to take greater risks in its work. He said he sees God's concern for the total well-being of man. It is important to treat man as an individual to be human and to live with the unfinished and incomplete. "Jesus must be seen as fully alive," he declared, "making obvious God's concern for the total well-being of man. It is important to treat man as an

Healing Substance: Shrinks Piles

Exclusive healing substance proven to shrink hemorrhoids and repair damaged tissue.

A renowned research institute has found a unique healing substance with the ability to shrink hemorrhoids painlessly. It relieves itching and discomfort in minutes and speeds up healing of the injured, inflamed tissue.

In case after case, while gently relieving pain, actual reduction (shrinkage) took place.

All this was accomplished with a healing substance (Bio-Dyne) which quickly helps heal injured cells and stimulates growth of new tissue.

Now Bio-Dyne is offered in ointment and suppository form called Preparation H. Ask for it at all drug stores. Satisfaction or your money refunded.

LOYALIST COLLEGE

Is Offering A New Program:

CONSTRUCTION TRADE HELPER

This is a sixteen week program commencing on a monthly basis from September 1973 through to March, 1974.

The program was established to fulfill the demand for skilled workers in the rapidly expanding construction industry. Emphasis will be placed on the practical aspects of construction.

The fee for the sixteen week program is $60.00. Additional costs include text books, tools and safety shoes.

A proposal for amalgamation which would see the number of county municipalities reduced to 12 and cut council membership to less than half has been placed before Hastings county council.

The proposal, if carried through, would see townships in middle and north Hastings join with one or more of their neighbors and would see the disappearance of all villages as separate administrative entities.

Admittedly, the proposal is one aimed at warding off the introduction of regional government but in view of a changing attitude on the part of the Ontario government, in the words of Tweed Reeve Barbara Allen it "might be all the municipal reform we need for some years to come."

The amalgamation proposal was tabled by the Tweed Reeve as chairman of the county municipal reform committee who emphasized repeatedly that it was before council simply to spark discussion.

She anticipated the proposal would meet with objection and even admitted that she herself was not entirely happy.

"But there has to be a start somewhere," she said.

The proposed amalgamation of county municipalities is on the basis of population and assessment.

There would be no change in the boundaries of Sidney, Thurlow, Tyendinaga and Rawdon.

But Hungerford would join with Elzevir and Grims-throwe, taking in the village of Tweed, Madoc and Huntingdon would join, take in Madoc village, Marmora and Lake townships would take in Marmora village.

Further north Wollaston, Limerick, Cashel and Tudor townships would become a single municipality; Dungan-son and Mayo would be joined; Herschel and Faraday would be joined taking in Bancroft, Montegale and Carleton Place. The proposal would become one municipality, while the now amalgamated townships of McC-lore, Wicklow and Bangor would remain as at present.

In the south, Frankford would become part of Sidney; Stirling would join with Rawdon and Deseronto would become part of Tyendinaga township.

I Am Fine
Thank you

(By Anonymous)

There is nothing the matter with me.
I'm healthy as I can be.
I have arthritis in both of my knees.
And when I talk, I talk with a wheeze.
My pulse is weak and my blood is thin
But I'm awfully well for the shape I'm in.

Arch supports I have for my feet.
Or I wouldn't be able to be on the street.
Sleep is denied me, night after night,
But every morning I find I'm all right.
My memory is failing, my head's in a spin,
But I'm awfully well for the shape I'm in.

The moral is this, as this tale unfolds
That for me and you who are growing old,
It's better to say, "I'm fine," with a grin,
Than to let folks know the shape I'm in.
How do I know that my youth is all spent?
Well, my "get up and go" has got up and went.
But I really don't mind when I think with a grin
Of all the grand places my "get up" has been.

Old age is golden, I've heard it said,
But sometimes I wonder as I get into bed,
With my ears in the drawer, my teeth in a cup
My eyes on the table until I wake up.
E'er sleep comes o'er me, I say to myself,
Is there anything else I should lay on the shelf?

When I was young, I've heard it said,
I could kick my heels right over my head.
When I grew older, my slippers were blue,
But I could still dance the whole night through.
Now when I am old, my slippers are black -
I walk to the store and puff my way back.

I get up each morning and dust off my wits;
Pick up the papers and read the "obits."
If my name is still missing, I know I'm not dead -
So I get a good breakfast and go back to bed.

We all know that it's costing more and more to feed our families these days. Recent U.S. government figures indicate that the difference is $109 more during the past year. The theoretical retail market basket for a typical family of four is up more than 8% over 1972. At an annual rate, it's costing the average family $1,409 (February, 1973) compared with $1,300 for the previous year. The Department of Agriculture report shows that the farm value of that cost was $606, up $114 over the year before. The middleman's costs were $803, up $21.

Supermarket prices rose for nearly all items during the past year, especially for meats, eggs, lettuce and milk. The farm value of what families pay was up about 18% for the year, while wholesale and retail costs rose about 2.6%.

While some relief is in sight, selected items will continue to increase in cost before starting to drop.

Such reports underscore the importance of wise consumer shopping, proper preparation before shopping, purchases of more economical cuts of meat (and ways to prepare them).

The re-organization would reduce the number of county council members to 20 from the present 47. The county's private bill now before the Ontario Legislature would reduce council membership to 29.

Reeve Allen noted that there were many other ways in which the county could be reorganized and said that even she was not happy with the proposal placed before council.

Horticultural Society meets

The holiday weekend saw 43 horticulturists meet at St. Paul's Church Hall to view a trip to Ireland, England, Wales, Holland and the United States.

The president, Mrs. Floyd Armstrong opened the meeting with the Lord's Prayer, Gardener's Prayer and welcome to all. The minutes were read and approved along with the treasurer's report. To present there are 170 members of the Stirling Horticultural Society. Final arrangements were made for the June 14th Flower Show to be held in St. Paul's Church Hall. Flowers will be arriving May 28 to be planted to beautify Stirling. A number of ladies were delegated to attend the June 20, 21 and 22 Convention to be held at the University of Mrs. Alex Tanner read "A Wild Flower Garden" telling how to grow and save wild flowers. Mrs. Tanner also introduced Mr. and Mrs. Harry Morrow, who shared with us in picture their best at Shannon Airport. Travelling through Ireland, England and Wales, the well known places were visited showing them in all their spring beauty. After a short trip to Father Flanagan's "Boy's Town" in Nebraska, the Great Salt Lake of Utah, the Ponderosa, the Japanese Garden in San Francisco, we went back to Holland to see the tulips, windmills and canals.

Mrs. Jean Lyall with Lenora West at the piano, favoured us with two musical selections. Mrs. Ray Rose thanked Mr. and Mrs. Morrow, Mrs. Lyall, and the program and lunch committee for a most pleasant afternoon.

The proposal placed before council. Also suggested by one of the committee members was the possibility of Belleville and Trenton joining in with the county.

Reeve Allen noted that there were many other ways in which the county could be reorganized and said that even she was not happy with the proposal placed before council.

Also suggested by one of the committee members was the possibility of Belleville and Trenton joining in with the county.

The proposal placed before council Tuesday will now go back to the individual municipalities for discussion and report to council at the September meeting.

Warden Horace Casey noted that it was the wish of the provincial government to reduce the number of municipalities and also council membership.

He suggested there were three lines of action which might be taken: 1. allow the introduction of regional government which he suggested would be ridiculous for Hastings; 2. amalgamate voluntarily; and 3. do nothing in the hope of the county remaining as it is.

Montegale Reeve S.J. Carr, member of the municipal reform committee, admitted to much of the "blame" for the map outlining the proposed amalgamation.

He was pleased with the reception the proposal had received even if there had been a bit of fault-finding.
With the proposal now to go back to the individual municipalities for discussion, he was certain council would get enough feedback to come up with something by the end of the year.

Morality

While they are not the type of things over which to gloat, the two current examples of moral decadence in the news headlines do give one something to pause and think about. Probably most don't give it a passing thought, but with the headlines about English call girl episodes and the American Water gate hearings bombarding the television screens, it certainly does provide food for contemplation, if your mind is concerned with such things.

While the two events, separated by several thousands of miles and are of two different natures, do not directly involve Canadians, the general situation is something about which we should be concerned. We cannot sit back and say it can't happen here. While in the American case, wiretapping is not likely here, although admittedly used by some police forces, we have had episodes like the English debacle, although on a lesser scale. The general interwoven natures of our economy and lifestyle with both the United States and United Kingdom is such that we could, if not careful, see some future involvement, as these things have a way of spreading like a cancerous growth.

One does not have to be a preacher or student of philosophy to realize that there is a general moral decline in our lives everywhere. There has been a gradual drifting away from the church-centered lives which used to dominate life. The development of cultures in most new countries was led by the various churches, because those representatives were usually the best educated, and therefore had the mental and spiritual development that was needed to spearhead such efforts. Church missionary work is still active today, it is true, but according to most authorities, with the population explosions around the world, the Christian tenets, or those closely related thereto are getting more and more in the minority.

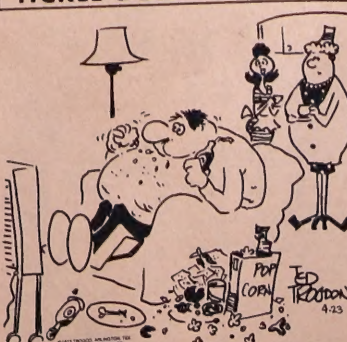

The same is true of the political and labor leadership of this country and also the other two we are watching at the moment. Frequently conferences are called for weekends, and most union meetings are announced for Sunday afternoons. If such attitudes are taken by the leaders, how can we expect the followers to accept any other position as a standard.

The same is also true of many residents. Whereas Sunday used to be considered a day of rest or visitation to nearby relatives of friends, now the highways are crowded with thousands headed for the cottage or a weekend of some activity such as hiking, skiing, boating or snowmobiling, just to mention a few. Not that there is specifically anything wrong with these pursuits, but where they used to be a luxury once or twice a season, now they seem to dominate weekend life of our countries. There seems to be little emphasis any more on consistent attendance at church by a huge majority. This is borne out by the fact that most major denominations have less members than say even ten years ago, while the population has done nothing but grow consistently over the same period.

The attitude of the present and coming generation is often defined as anti-establishment or anti-system. For some reason they seem to consider many past policies nothing but a wholesome bore. There may be some instances where life was too restrictive, but compared with the quick swing to the other end of the pendulum, it wasn't really that bad.

Why not give it some thought, and see what you can do in your small way to try and recapture a little of the life style we used to have, which seemed to provide a more solid basis for life than we are now following.

Recycling racks... In Metropolitan Toronto, tiny East York has become the first to make a profit from a recycling operation.

Unlike Toronto and Etobicoke, which offer separate collections of paper, Metro's smallest borough has paper racks installed on all its garbage pickup trucks.

For the citizen interested in recycling, this means he does not have to wait for special pickups, letter paper accumulates for long periods of time. All he has to do is bundle it and put it out beside the rest of the garbage.

About 10 per cent of the borough's householders have been doing this and as a result, the borough works department is convinced it turns a bit of profit on the program.

But there are problems ahead if all of Metro gets serious about recycling. If 25 per cent of the area's newspapers were recycled, this

On the other hand, a high load of recycling—400,000 tons or more a year—could permit the development of a major deinking and paper recycling operation by a paper company.

While municipalities have the best chance of making recycling work, some volunteer organizations in the Province are going strong. The Burlington Citizen's Committee for Pollution Control, for one is dealing with glass, metal and paper by the ton at its recycling centre.

In 1972, the centre recycled 120 tons of glass, 40 tons of metal and 200 tons of paper. The total quantity of material handled doubled the centre's total during 1971.

And the committee is still going strong with recycling, briefs to government, public information and environmental education.

Do You Remember?

25 Years Ago

With over forty years continuous service to his credit, Mr. E.W. Ormiston, local C.N.R. Agent retired on pension on Tuesday, June 1st. He began his railway career with the Thousand Island Railway in Gananoque, later being employed by the Grand Trunk and the Canadian National Railways. During his lengthy period of service he has been stationed in many places, including Belleville, Brockville, Mallorytown, Port Hope, Oshawa, Trenton and Stirling where he has been agent for the past twenty years.

Reeve W.J. Morrison and Councillors of Rawdon Township are sponsoring a drive for financial assistance for Robert Matthews of the 7th Concession of Rawdon who suffered the loss of his large farm barn and hen house as well as a part of his orchard in a violent windstorm recently. An appeal is being made to all public spirited citizens and organizations to come to the assistance of a fellow neighbour and citizen.

Stirling Branch of the Canadian Legion are making preparations for a Memorial and Dedication Service to be held on Sunday afternoon, June 13th at 2:30 o'clock, at which the newly inscribed names on the Cenotaph are to be unveiled.

Wm. Chambers who sold his farm on the outskirts of this village last Fall, has purchased a farm about six miles west of Campbellford on the Hastings road. He has been moving his farm equipment this week.

Miss Beverley Prince, daughter of Mrs. Geo. Prince, of Stirling, underwent an appendectomy in Belleville Hospital on Monday. Her many friends will be pleased to know that she is making satisfactory progress towards recovery.

At the recent Conference of the United Church Mr. Harold C. Martin was elected as a Commissioner to attend the General Council of the Church, which will be held at Vancouver in September of this year. We understand that Mr. Martin was a popular choice having received the highest number of ballots amongst the sixteen other nominees.

A number of the members of the W.F.M.S. of St. Andrew's Church attended the annual meeting of the Kingston Presbyterian held in Belleville the first three days of this week.

The meeting of the Epworth League of the Methodist Church tomorrow (Friday) evening, promises to be of more than usual interest as preparations are being made to hold an old-fashioned spelling match in place of the regular League work. All are welcome.

To encourage the observation and collection of our commonly occurring wild plants and flowers, Rev. W.H. Clarke is offering to the Public Schools within the limits of Rawdon Circuit six prizes, to be given in books on Nature Study. The books will be carefully chosen, and will be both interesting and valuable, ranging in price from $1.00 to $1.00. The time given is from now to Sept. 1st, 1909. Further particulars are given in circulars issued to the schools. This is an interesting and profitable competition and should insure a large number of contestants.

Compensation Talk

Report! Immediately and in detail. That's the advice, from all department and from every level of responsibility of the Workmen's Compensation Board, Ontario.

Fundamental and simple as it may seem, failure to report, promptly and in full, on the circumstances and results of an accident is far and away the most prevalent cause for delays in injured workmen receiving the benefits to which they are entitled under the Ontario Workmen's Compensation system.

From the workman's point of view W.C.B. spokesmen emphasize even the most minor injuries should be reported. In cases where the only treatment required is First Aid it is not necessary to report the matter to the Board. However, the Ontario Workmen's Compensation Act does require that employers provide First Aid treatment facilities and that there be documentation by the company of all incidents resulting in treatment. But it all starts with that first report of the incident from the injured workman.

If more than First Aid is necessary, that is a visit or attendance by a medical practitioner or treatment in the emergency department of a hospital, the matter must be reported to the Workmen's Compensation Board for payment of medical costs. Here again there will normally be no requirement for a report to the Board from the workman himself. In some instances the workman may eventually receive forms to be returned to the Board confirming that he received the treatment outlined, but in any case the incident will normally be reported to the Board by the employer.

Where an incident results in a workman losing work time beyond the day of the accident, thus entitling him to cash compensation benefits, the initial report of the incident will normally be made by the employer or the medical agency, since both are obliged under the Act to file such reports. Payment may be made on receipt of the employer's report alone for a limited time, however, for continuing payment, progress reports from the workman and his doctor will be necessary. Forms should be completed in full and returned to the Board promptly so that further cash payments can be paid.

Once a claim is established, the Ontario Workmen's Compensation system provides medical aid and lost time benefits which are the match not a single member of the Board's more than 1,600 employees can lift a finger to help an injured workman until they have the information

Energetic Ladies League

The Energetic Bowling League closed the season with a delicious Smorgasbord Supper, served by the ladies of the Orange Lodge.

While the ladies cleared the tables a sing song led by Joan Jones, with Lenora West at the piano was enjoyed by all. Irene Hogle thanked the ladies for serving such a lovely banquet.

President Heather McGee assisted by Verna Woodbeck gave out the awards won during the bowling season. In 'A' Group, Elsie O'Brien held the high average of 185. High single was won by Bev Adams with 276 and high average by Ivy Poste with 758.

In 'B' Group, high single was won by Frances Heath and triple by Sylvia Porritt. Holding the high triple over all but not eligible to receive a prize was Lenora West with 879. She was presented with a small plaque by the League, for obtaining such a high score.

The team prizes were as follows: the top team with Elsie O'Brien as captain, came first with 124 points. They all received a large silver serving tray and a crest. The second place team with 107 points, and June Wilcox as captain, received smaller silver trays. Third standing was Bev Adams team receiving silver cream and sugars. Fourth place team with Joan Jones as captain also received a small silver serving tray.

Gifts were presented to Ivy Poste who so kindly did the paper correspondence, and to Verna Woodbeck for acting as secretary.

A short business meeting followed during which Ivy Poste conducted the election for next year, officers as follows: President, Heather McGee; Vice President, Pat Harris; Secretary, Hilda Rose; Treasurer, Verna Woodbeck; Captains, No. 1, June Wilcox; No. 2, Mary Johnson; No. 3, Pat Harris; No. 4, Frances Heath.

The evening was spent with all joining in contests, a few games of bingo and the one team presenting a sing song skit with costumes. This was much enjoyed by all.

The president then brought in a lovely cake decorated to represent our bowling League, which was cut and passed around with a cup of tea or coffee.

See you all next year.

Minto
